2. Symposium on «Durability of Structures» Lisbon, Portugal, September 6 – 8, 1989

The Symposium technical programme will comprise sessions of identical format: plenary sessions, presentation sessions, workshop, poster sessions, a commercial exhibition as well as visits of the National Laboratory of Civil Engineering.

Together with 150 authors presenting their contributions in, sometimes concurrent, sessions, participants will have opportunities to contribute actively to the discussions.

The Symposium Report, containing all keynote lectures, the contributions accepted for the sessions, workshops and poster sessions, will be handed over to the participants at the beginning of the Symposium. It will facilitate the choice of the sessions of particular interest for each attendant.

Two technical Post-Symposium Tours are proposed to the participants.

All other details about organization, social programme, hotels, are included in the Final Invitation, mailed in February 1989 to interested persons. A reduced fee is granted before June 30, 1989.
