Kandersteg International

The International Scout Centre at Kandersteg (Switzerland) is a meeting place for young people from all over the world. As centre for activities it offers a large variety of Alpine and international programmes. These enable experienced and inexperienced boys and girls of 11 to 25 years old to get to know the mountain world and to make new contacts. A permanent and full-time staff looks after the welfare of the guests. For skiing courses and mountaineering courses, non-girl guides and non-scouts are welcome throughout the year. The months of July and August, as well as the Christmas and New Year period are reserved for groups of the girl guides and scouts movements only.

The Centre consists of three large accommodation houses: the Chalet (150 beds) with all important amenities, the Tower Centre (40 beds) and an Alpine hut at 1900m in the Oeschinen Valley, with roughly 20 places. During the summer months, a camping site (approximately 17.5 hectares) is available, again with amenities suitable to the needs created by the Alpine and international activities.

Detailed information may be had free of charge from the International Scout Centre, 3718 Kandersteg, Switzerland. Telephone 033 75 11 39. Telex 33972 scout ch, or telegraphic address Scout Kandersteg.
