National Council Elections – 21st October 1979

Dear Compatriots,

The Federal Act of 17th December 1976 on political rights, accepted by the Swiss people on 4th December 1977, provides that the cantons shall send a complete set of voting papers to each elector not later than 10 days before election day. For reasons connected with organization and printing it was necessary to fix a shorter time-limit than the three weeks prescribed in the case of referendums.

The Federal Council will circularize the Cantons about the National Council Elections, asking them to send the voting material for the Swiss abroad to the «communes of presence» in Switzerland as soon as possible.

To be on the safe side, however, we would advise you, if possible, to plan your visit to Switzerland in such a way that you can cast your vote in your «commune of presence» or in your voting commune between 11th and 18th October 1979.

Yours sincerely, Federal Chancellery

Book reviews

All the books mentioned below may be obtained through the intermediary of the Secretariat of the Swiss Abroad, Alpenstrasse 26, 3000 Berne 16, or from your local bookseller.

«Die Reise auf den Uetliberg» (Journey to the Uetliberg)

This is a journey described by Salomon Schinz in 1774; he had made it in the company of the botanist David Breitinger. It is a lively page of Zurich history, ornamented with enchanting illustrations. It is a small work which will delight every citizen, and concerning the largest Swiss town. It exists in German only. 96 pages. Price: SFr15.80, to be ordered from Schweizer Verlagshaus AG, 8008 Zurich, Switzerland.

«Grosse Schweizer sehen sich selbst» (Great Swiss look at themselves)

To get to know a certain number of great helvetic personalities, is the wish of Fritz René Allemann who paints the portraits of great Swiss from Zwingli to Spitteler. This remarkable treatment will enchant the amateurs eager to know the personalities who have made Switzerland. It is published in German only. 464 pages for only SFr 23.—, to be ordered from Schweizer Verlagshaus AG, 8008 Zurich, Switzerland.

«Almanach der Schweiz» (Almanach of Switzerland)

This is a book of reference concerning Switzerland, published by Peter Lang AG, Muenzengraben 2, 3011 Berne, Switzerland. This work is the production of the Institute of Sociology of the University of Zurich. It is a social report concerning Switzerland, complemented by statistics and diagrams which relate to the complex structural evolution of the State. It is a book which contains a great deal of research in various fields, also including a short chapter devoted to the Swiss abroad. Published in German only. 286 pages. Price SFr 30.—.

«Romands, Alémaniques, Tessinois»

«This book has not been written to please» announces its author Jean-Pierre Vouga modestly at the very beginning of his introduction. And yet, it pleases because it asks some real questions – what is more important than a linguistic problem in a federative state? – and offers some sound answers. Jean-Pierre Vouga knows his subject, for he worked for four years in the federal administration as assistant to the delegate for the management of territory. It is a concise book, a serious digest and quiet appeal to clarity. It is in French only. Editions de la Baconnière, 2000 Neuchâtel. It has 144 pages and costs SFr 19.50.

The Basle professor and research scientist Werner Arber received the Nobel Prize for Medicine. He is seen here with his wife and daughter.

The first fighter planes Northrop F-5 «Tiger» arrived in Switzerland.

Many differences of opinion were caused by the plebiscite on the formation of a federal security police force. The electorate rejected the proposal.

«La Description de la Principauté de Neuchâtel et de Valangin» (Description of the Principality of N. and of V.)

The manuscript was written in 1692 and has now been re-published. Abraham Amiest, doctor and mathematician, describes the customs and problems of the population of the Canton during that epoch. The text is in Old French, a reproduction of the original work. The format is 16.5x24 cm and the price is SFr 9.—. Publisher: Revue neuchâteloise, case postale 906, 2001 Neuchâtel, Switzerland.

«L'ambulance du Docteur Alexis Carrel 1914-1918»

In the years 1914 to 1918, the term «ambulance» meant all movable field hospitals which tried to alleviate at least the worst suffering during those tragic times. Dr. Carrel asked a group of nurses of the nursing school «La Source» in Lausanne to help him in looking after the injured. This school which owned a collection of hitherto unpublished documentation regarding the «ambulance», committed itself to the promotion of this expedient. It entrusted one of their collaborators, Georgette Mottier, with this task. The text is in French. There are 180 pages and 76 photographs. Distribution: Payot Lausanne or ASS.

«Encyclopédie du Canton de Fribourg»

Over 200 specialists have combined in putting their knowledge and results of research into the two volumes of this reference book. Thus they have created for the public a complete work of information on any sphere in the Canton of Fribourg from its origin to the present. Format 22x24cm. Bound. French text. Volume I: 264 pages, 120 illustrations. Volume II: 290 pages, 150 illustrations. Both volumes mostly in colour. Price of both books together: SFr. 138.— plus Fr.8.50 for packing and postage. Orders to be sent to: Office du Livre SA, Post Box 1061, 1701 Fribourg, Switzerland, or to the ASS.
