Vade-mecum

At their last meeting, the Commission on Information decided to publish a special issue for the Swiss abroad, which will appear in the autumn of 1979.

It will be a copy of the «Review», which should be kept carefully by everyone as a source of reference regarding legal, cultural and other problems, as well as a list of useful addresses.

Accordingly, the autumn issue of the «Review» will appear in September or beginning of October, depending on the continent. It will not contain any local pages. Will you please take note already now regarding announcements of your programmes of activities and other articles suitable for inclusion.

Summer Camp 1979

Soon the summer season will be back again and with it, too, the period of our traditional summer camp. We are happy that we are able to organize a camp again and thus offer to the young Swiss from abroad an opportunity of spending active holidays in Switzerland. We hope that many of you will take part, and we give you the date at which the camp will take place:

17th July to 4th August 1979

If you are a young Swiss resident abroad and between 15 and 25, and if you like rambles, comradeship and fun, please apply for further information and an application form to the Secretariat of the Swiss Abroad, Youth Service, Alpenstrasse 26, 3000 Berne 16, Switzerland.

Holidays in Switzerland again

for Swiss children living abroad

On behalf of the Foundation for Young Swiss Abroad and of Pro Juventute the Holiday Organization for Swiss Children Living Abroad will be organizing a holiday scheme again for next summer.

Eligible for participation: Children of Swiss nationality, children of foreign nationality whose mother is a Swiss national by descent.

Age of participants: 7–15 years.

Holiday possibilities: in Swiss families in our camps (from 10 years on) in children's homes (7–10 year olds)

Registration forms and further information: can be obtained from Swiss Embassies and Consulates, to whom completed registration forms have to be returned.

Latest application date: March 1979

Cost: No child will be prevented from participation in the holiday scheme for financial reasons. Depending on the income of the parents we can bear the costs partially or entirely.
