NEWS OF THE COLONY AUCKLAND SWISS CLUB

Another Jass competition was organized on September 12th after good interest was shown at our last card game evening in July. This time, however, not too many players turned up. But those who did turn up thoroughly enjoyed the game and had no regrets to have come along to Hagans Restaurant.

September 21st.

I hope that nobody expected to hear the Swiss programme on Radio Pacific on Sunday 28th, as announced in the last Helvetia. It was in fact broadcast one week earlier, on September 21st (members were advised of this change). The LINK Society had invited us once more to contribute in their Sunday evening programme. It sounds incredible to hear Swiss folk music coming out of Radio Pacific and I can only agree with the hearer who rang to say that much more of this kind of programme should be on the air.

On Saturday, 27th September was our Carnival Ball at the Edendale School Hall and the Auckland members proved much imagination and skill in their masquerades. Many hours must have been spent in designing and creating these costumes - some pretty and dainty, others horrid and frightening, but all of them full of imagination. There was a huge kiwi (a very busy nocturnal creature...) a frog, a couple of bees, Indians, a scarecrow, Till Eulenspiegel, three little piggies and the Big Bad Wolf, a fearsome nightghost, an even more frightening witch and worst of all, Count Dracula himself! Many other funny creations crowded the dance floor and it must have been extremely difficult for the jury to make their choice. I though the two white bunnies on their roller skates deserved a price too. Actually, the kiwi bore the same trademark as the bunnies and was also handmade! He was only one point behind the scarecrow who won first price for the best single mask. The magnum bottle of champagne for the best group went to the three piggies and the wolf who certainly deserved it.

Bravo to all those who spent so much time and effort in designing their costume and made the evening so successful. Many thanks to the helpers who decorated the hall and baked delicious Fastnachtkuechli, Schenkeli, Berliner Pfannkuchen, etc. One couldn't really blame people for eating those goodies up and leaving the sandwiches behind. Thanks also to those visiting us from other clubs. PS: If your head was humming the next morning - it must have been these bees buzzing around all evening.....

WELLINGTON SWISS CLUB

Whether there is a great number of sympathizers for bernese traditions amongst the Swiss Club members and friends or whether the reputation of the Club's cooking performances has its magnetism - the bernese evening of September 20 saw no empty tables, but a rather hecticly engaged 'kitchen gang' filling huge dishes with huge piles of Sauerkraut with Rippli plus other trimmings.

Luckily enough, there was still some floor space left to get rid of the excess calories later on by swirling to some Laendler rhythms (or by doing the dishes...)

Pope 'chauvinist'

Vatican City (NZPA-AP). — Italian feminists and writers are calling Pope John Paul II everything from "mediaeval" to "a male chauvinist" for his latest declaration on sex.

"Every day he (the Pope) is taking a step backward to the Dark Ages," author Lucia Drull Dembi told the Rome daily Il Messaggero.

Speaking in his weekly general audience on Wednesday, the Polish-born Pontiff offered a sweeping analysis of Christ's words on adultery: "Lustful desires and adultery committed in one's heart".

He said: "Adultery in your heart is committed not only when you look with concupiscence (abnormal, excessive sexual desire) at a woman who is not your wife but also if you look in the same manner at your wife.

"The husband must not use his wife, her femininity, to fulfil his instinctive desire," the Pope said. "Concupiscence . . . diminishes the richness of the perennial attraction of persons for interpersonal communion.

"Through such a reduction, the other person becomes the mere object for satisfying a sexual need and touches the dignity of the person (wife)."

Many Italian newspapers today carried critical analyses of the papal statement under such headlines as "The sin of looking" and "Do not desire your wife".

Servette im Cup ausgeschieden

In den Cup-Achtelfinals kommt es zum Schlager Grasshoppers - Young Boys

(Si.) Die Sensation der 4. Cup-Hauptrunde war die Elimination von Servette-Genf durch den Erstligaklub Martigny (2:1). Als weiterer Unterklassiger vermochte sich nur noch Altstätten gegen den NLB-Verein Lugano nach einem spannenden Finale mit Penaltyschiessen durchzusetzen. Alle übrigen Unterklassigen schieden aus. Aber in verschiedenen Partien ging es knapp an weiteren Überraschungen vorbei. St. Gallen vermochte den Sieg gegen den Zweitligisten Veltheim erst in der 106. Spielminute durch Graf sicherzustellen, und auch Nordstern brauchte eine Verlängerung, um sich gegen Etoile Carouge durchsetzen zu können.

Die Überraschung der Runde erlebten 2000 Zuschauer auf dem Gemeindesportplatz von Martigny. Erstmals herrschte aufgeregte Stimmung, als Rittmann in der 19. Minute das 1:0 gelang. Servette musste bis zur 41. Minute kämpfen, ehe der Ausgleich gelang. Der neuerliche Führungstreffer für Martigny fiel in der 68. Minute durch R. Moret. Die Servette-Abwehr fiel vollends auseinander, als der frühere Vorstopper der Nationalmannschaft, Bizzini, in der 70. Minute wegen Nachtretens vom Platz gestellt wurde.

«Uri: Land am Beton»

cb. Während der Eröffnungsfeierlichkeiten zum Gotthard-Strassentunnel wurde in Göschenen ein mit «Einige betroffene Urner» unterzeichnetes Flugblatt verteilt. «Jetzt haben wir sie am Hals, die Autobahn und die Abgase, die Zerstörung vom Tal, die Verluste von Land und Wald», heisst es darin. Und weiter: «Vierspurig und gesichert werden Tunnel und Autobahn noch mehr Verkehr ins Tal ziehen, mit dem Nutzen für die Zentren des Mittelandes und des Auslandes, der Umweltverschandelung mit einem von vielen Kunstbauten durchsetzten Betonband vor unseren Augen. Dran glauben mussten 19 Arbeiter, 2,9 Millionen m² Land, darin inbegriffen 800 000 m² Wald. Damit leben müssen die Talbewohner, eher resigniert und fassungslos als fasziniert. 400 Franken kostet der cm dieser Alpenautobahn oder 2,1 Milliarden im ganzen für die 47 km auf Urner Boden.»

BIG CONTRACT SIGNED WITH THE USSR

The Swiss firm, Usine Rasata SA, which manufactures special machines of worldwide reputation as well as trimming and cutting disks, has just signed a contract worth 10 million francs with V/O Prommashimport in Moscow. It has been commissioned to equip a new umbrella factory with an annual output of about 1 million units. This new umbrella factory, the second largest in the USSR, will be ready to start production in 1982. (SODT)

THE HIGHEST AERIAL CABLEWAY IN EUROPE

At the end of last year, the highest aerial cableway in Europe was put into operation in Switzerland. It takes tourists up to the Little Matterhorn at a height of 12,530 feet. Owing to the particularly difficult atmospheric conditions prevailing at this altitude, it took three years of hard work and a number of exceptional technical solutions to build this aerial cableway.
