Results of the Competition

The competition organized by the Solidarity Fund, which was published in the December 1984 issue of this periodical, was very successful.

By the qualifying date, we had received 1504 answers from 66 countries. Unfortunately, many answers arrived too late.

We should like to thank our compatriots abroad for their interest and the enthusiasm evident in their participation.

706 people sent the correct answers which had to be as follows:

1. William Tell
2. Madame Tussaud (Marie)
3. Murten
4. Le Corbusier
5. 1958
6. Bellinzona
7. St. Peter
8. Geneva
9. Grande-Dixence or Lac des Dix
10. Basle
11. Dürrenmatt (Friedrich)
12. Tarasp
13. Giacometti (Alberto)
14. Herzog (Hans)

The most frequent mistake we found, was in the answer concerning General Herzog. Many participants confused him with Dufour. One person participant actually managed to get 13 wrong answers out of 14, followed by two more with 12 mistakes each. These three compatriots will receive a consolation prize – a book on Switzerland!

The number of compatriots who asked for documentation regarding the Solidarity Fund was 790.

The first prize went to Mrs Marie Louise Rueck from Norrköping in Sweden, whose estimated number was 792. Congratulations!

We wish her a pleasant trip to Switzerland and enjoyable holidays in the Ticino.

The second prize, a stay of one week in Interlaken during the Assembly of Swiss Abroad in 1985, as well as an admission card to this event, went to Hildegard Kavanagh from Marondera, Zimbabwe. We are looking forward to welcoming our compatriot in August.

The third prize was won by Mrs Marcelle Welthagen from Kalamund, Australia, a three-day stay at Crans-Montana (Valais) and a free travel voucher in Switzerland.

The other happy winners are:

4th prize: Mrs Ida Haenni from Wittelsheim, France: a week at Adelboden.

5th prize: Mr Alfred Wenger from Hemptinne, Belgium: a return flight Zurich–Geneva.

6th prize: Mrs Renata Janner-Zoppi from Malden, Netherlands: an elegant gold-plated quartz watch with moonphases.

7th prize: Mrs Julie Cometta from Rhode Island, USA: a large musical box.
