In 1985 more marriages were contracted in Switzerland than in 1984. The birthrate, however, continues to decline and is clearly below the level that would be necessary to maintain, in the long term, the balance of the Swiss population.

The figures for emigration from Switzerland have remained practically constant: 9,872 Swiss, liable for military service, left our country in 1985. Favourite countries were the USA, Federal Germany and France.

Just 175 years after the first ascent of the Jungfrau: from next year, the newly-built restaurant at the Jungfrauoch will offer visitors an incomparable panoramic view.

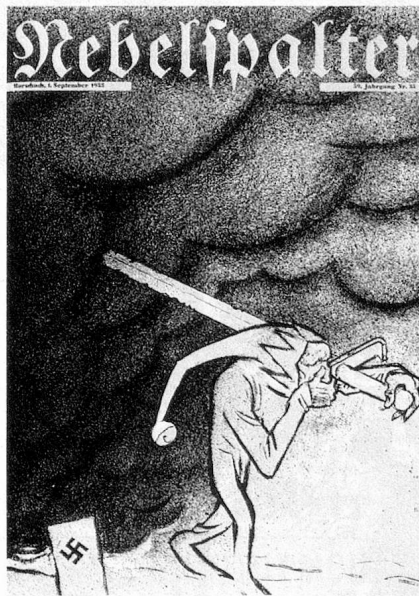

Over the next five years, SFr. 20 million is to be spent on demonstration and pilot plants for the rational, economical and non-polluting use of energy. The Federal Council has asked Parliament to grant a corresponding framework credit.

Swissair with video: instead of a hostess, a projector demonstrates the safety precautions on long-distance flights. Information on the aircraft's route, altitude and speed is also shown on the screen map.

Nebelspalter, the famous German-Swiss satirical magazine, celebrates its 111th anniversary. This periodical, so rich in tradition, comes out this year in a new graphical coat without, however, betraying its identity.

1933...
The burning of the books by the Nazis. The Nebelspalter was hit too. Although determined to «clear the fog», it was not ready to let itself in for an ordeal by fire.
