Dear Compatriots,

I have recently been appointed as Consul General in Melbourne with jurisdiction throughout Victoria, South Australia, Tasmania and Western Australia, following the departure of my predecessor, Consul General Günter Britschgi.

In the meantime, I have already had the opportunity to meet quite a number of you and I sincerely hope that the good relationship between the Consulate General and the Swiss Community will be strengthened during my term in this beautiful City of Melbourne. I certainly will do the utmost from my side.

I am looking forward to meeting you all in the near future.

Sincerely yours,
Leo Renggli

Consul General Renggli was born in Lucerne. He entered the Federal Department of Foreign Affairs in 1960 in Berne.

With the exception of an appointment in Berne (1967/70), he was always posted abroad, Kinshasa, Los Angeles, Karachi, Singapore and in 1982 he was named Chargé d'affaires in Abu Dhabi, the Capital of the United Arab Emirates, followed by the appointment as Consul General in Los Angeles (1985).

ADELAIDE

Swiss Club of S.A.
PO Box 70, Burnside, S.A. 5066

In September, a well attended A.G.M. elected a new committee, and for the first time we welcome a lady at the helm. Our new president is Gerda Ledergerber.

In recognition of Kuno Keller's long service to the S.A. Swiss community, Bronya Keller and her family were made honorary life members.

Unfortunately, our Alpenchörli had to disband - Rosmarie always intended to be a temporary leader only. Unless we find another willing person to take over, we just will get together several times a year for a singalong.

The "Ladies' Group" wants to thank Nikki Zürcher for inviting us. He spent several hours of his precious time showing us his extensive orchid collection and the laboratory where he constantly creates new varieties, specialising in Ladies' Slipper Orchids. His is the largest such establishment in Australia.

Future plans:

At the time of writing, we look forward to the Club picnic at the end of October at Thorndon Park Reservoir.

9.12. 12 noon, Christmas Party at Tusmore Park

9. 2. Beach Brunch at Point Malcolm Reserve, Semaphore

Late

Febr. Zoo Party (to be confirmed)

Swiss Stammtisch and opportunity for a Jass at the German Club Rooms every first and third Saturday of the month.

Persons who are interested in a specially advantageous airfare Adelaide-Perth to connect with the charter flight Sydney-Zurich next year should contact Maya Gramp on 356 2392.

Our President would welcome more suggestions for the 700 Year Celebrations, even from readers who are not members of the Swiss Club of S.A. Please ring 294 5567.

BRISBANE

Swiss Radio 4EB - 1053 kHz AM

Every Thursday between 5.00 and 6.15 p.m., you can hear the Swiss program for Brisbane and surroundings. As usual, the first 20 to 30 minutes will be in English, with information for those who are interested in what is happening back home. After that, it is great music, a bit of humour and our regular features such as CH-Notizen, Zweierleier etc.

So keep listening to the Swiss program on 4EB where we are sharing the world with you.

By now, our members will have received the Club's revised constitution which was adopted at the Extraordinary General Meeting on April 5th for the purpose of the Club's incorporation (which by now is completed). And, by the time you read this, Santa Claus will have paid his annual visit to the children of the Canberra Swiss Club in the Cotter pine forest.

The Jass enthusiasts spent a most enjoyable evening playing for the Club's trophy. This year's Jass champion is Röbi Bachmann; Peter Zimmermann came second and Cesi Beretta third. Many thanks, too, to the hosts for the evening, Lina and Toni Shlager.

A family picnic is planned for February - our newsletter will inform you of date and place.

Don't forget to listen to the German language program of Radio 2XX AM on 1010kHz. Every second week, Marcel and Evi will keep you up to date on matters Swiss.

On Sunday August 5th, a sizeable group of people braved a rather cold and windy day to attend the National Day Picnic at Gembrook. There was perhaps a message in these bleak weather conditions, reminding us that the history of Switzerland over nearly 700 years hasn't always been just plain sailing in the sunshine. The formal part of the celebrations included a short speech by the Vice-Consul, Ms. E. Pfister, the sounds of the alphorns and the two Yodel Choirs, and a quiz on Switzerland presented by the children of the Saturday Morning Swiss School.

While some measured their strength and skill with the traditional Steinstossen, others were happy to retreat to the warm shelter and catch up with some friends over a cup of coffee or a glass of wine. Later in the afternoon, a huge bonfire was successfully lit and, with the sounds of the Edelwyss Yodlers in the background, it helped to warm the bodies and souls of those patriotic enough to brave the rain.

On September 8th, this year's Jass Competition was concluded. Hans Meyer was winner of the day, followed by Vreni Hürlimann, while the winner of the Matterhorn Championship 1990 was Franz Gabriel, followed by Hans Bless and Hans Meyer.

The Club premises shall be closed after Wednesday, December 5th, but will reopen again on Wednesday, February 6th, 1991, for a "Jassabig". From then on, the Club will be

The calendar of events should cover the period March to June 1991.

Though the space available in each issue is limited, contributions from all Swiss clubs and organisations are very welcome. As the Australian edition of the Swiss Review is sent to all the compatriots registered with the Consulates General in Melbourne and Sydney, it is an excellent medium to reach a broad readership. Thank you all for your cooperation. PE.

Special events for 1991 will be announced later.

Yodel Club Edelwyss

The last few months have - like every year - been spent very actively. Besides promotional activities for Swissair and the Hilton Hotel, we participated in the National Day Celebrations both at the Ball and the Picnic. Early in September, we held our yearly evening at the Swiss Club. Instead of a fundraising evening as in previous years, we decided on a "gmütliche Raclette Abe", a relaxed get together with all our friends and supporters of many years' standing. Needless to say that the evening was a great success.

Our future, however, does not look at all promising. Despite numerous calls for new members over the past years, there has been little to no response. We simply have not enough voices in our choir at present, and performances, these days, can only be planned for dates when nobody is on holidays or has other commitments, and in the hope that no singer gets ill on the day. Sadly, a number of requests for the Choir to perform had to be turned down between now and Christmas for this reason, including the annual Oktoberfest.

On the other hand, we are very fortunate now to have an excellent conductor who is determined to further raise our standard of singing. What we need now are people to become active and join us on Wednesday nights at the Swiss Club, 89 Flinders Lane, in the city. For more information, talk to any of the yodlers or ring Roland Isler, after hours, on telephone (03) 578 2363.

President's Report

On behalf of the Swiss Club of Victoria, it gives me great pleasure to welcome our new Consul General, Mr. Leo Renggli. He arrived towards the end of September. We all wish him a successful and enjoyable stay in Melbourne and look forward to our mutual co-operation.

Our thanks go to the Vice-Consul, Ms. Elisabeth Pfister, who was Acting Consul General for three months, and who was always ready to help and support the Club.

Our National Day celebrations were again an outstanding success. At the Albert Banquet Centre, close to 500 guests had a great evening and on the 1st August, the Club was packed with members and friends. A sincere thank you to all the organisers.

As this article goes to press, the preparations for the Oktoberfest are in full swing. This is our major fundraising event, and the tremendous efforts each year by the committee and the helpers, enthusiastically led by the Vice-Präsident Klaus Sieber, deserve our deepest appreciation and thanks.

During October, the participants in our National Sport, "Jassen", are being kept busy. The "Günter Britschgi Cup", a competition for the combined Swiss and Matterhorn Clubs, was won by Hans Meyer and the runner-up was Pat Calabresi. The Swiss Club Championship (Ernie and Ursula Hügli Trophy) was won by Theo Wyrtsch and the runner-up was Hans Meyer. Congratulations to all. The final for the "Jass-Weltmeisterschaft" will be held on October 20th.

A committee has been formed to organise the celebrations of CH700 next year. It is planned to start with Moomba (March 1991) and finish in October. Details will be advised later.

I would like to take this opportunity to wish all our Members, our Friends and their families a very happy Christmas and a prosperous and above all a healthy 1991.

Primo Calabresi.

Radio 6EBA FM, 95.3 MHz

1990 has been a year of ups and downs for the Swiss Radio and Ethnic Broadcasting as a whole: Transmissions of Ethnic Broadcasting on Radio 6NR ceased on April 1st, and it has been a long wait for the resumption with the new station 6EBA FM on 95.4 MHz. There were frustrating delays in getting permission to mount the transmitter's antenna on one of Perth's highest towers. But it is all go now, the antenna has been ordered, and Ethnic Broadcasting will be on the air in November.

The Swiss Radio will have one hour transmission time per week, which will allow us to present more material from Swiss Radio International. The time and weekday are yet to be determined. All 60 ethnic groups want to have a prime time slot. However, the result of time draws will be known soon.

Our Radio Makers, Ruth Kellenberger, Peter and Gabrielle Moser, Gerry Dauth and – hopefully – James Kunz (when he returns) are keen to resume and are already undergoing technical training on the new equipment. However, the Radio Team need new blood, especially anyone interested in operating the station's equipment and in assisting in the presentation of programs. If you are interested, please ring Ruth on 378 2307, Gerry on 279 2596 or Peter on 446 4739.
