The 1995 Congress of the Swiss Abroad in Berne

The Fifth Switzerland and election year 1995

In autumn 1995 Swiss voters living abroad will be able to take part in federal elections by correspondence for the first time. This means that they will have to become more familiar with the Swiss party landscape. This year's Congress of the Swiss Abroad to be held on August 25–27 provides the best possible opportunity for this.

Which parties have taken on board the interests of the Fifth Switzerland, like maintaining the optional pension scheme? Direct answers to this and many other similar questions will be given to those attending the 1995 Congress in Berne.

Preparations are coming on apace, and we can already be certain that an informative and varied programme will

Summer sports camp 1995

Wouldn't you like to learn something new with other young people from all over the world? If so you'll be in exactly the right place at the multi-sports summer camp organised by the Secretariat for the Swiss Abroad. In our huge range of activities you too will find something to enthuse about: swimming (aqua-fun), canoeing, tennis, beach volleyball, sportmix (basketball, biking, judo), etc. There will also be time for trips, discussions and just be organised. The political parties will be given the opportunity to present their being happy together. Please join us.

manifestos; but they will also have to be ready to answer questions on what they are doing for the Fifth Switzerland. It is hoped that as many direct contacts as possible between politicians and Swiss Abroad taking part will be made – whether in plenary meetings, in working groups or informally.

Post Congress trip

This year again the OSA is arranging a three-day post-Congress trip on August 28–30. We will tell you more about this in the next issue of Swiss Review. But pencil in the dates already!
