MY SWITZERLAND:

On the one hand I'm glad to be able to live in rich Switzerland. On the other hand it shocks me how materialist we are here. We bother too much about money and too little about ourselves. This means we are not open enough to people from other cultures. Our traditions mean little to me. I can't identify with yodelling.

Swiss Radio International in the jubilee year

SRI will be redoubling its efforts in commemorative year 1998. Together with the other radio stations of Swiss Broadcasting Corporation (SBC), it will attempt to bring to a broader public the early history of modern Switzerland, which is not widely known.

In the framework of the joint SBC project "Idee Suisse 98", SRI will be following the activities of the travelling exhibition "History for the Future". It will be reporting on events concerning the early history of today's Switzerland in 13 carefully selected places.

In the summer months, "Idee Suisse 98" will take to the water. A ship will be leased for a week on each of the three frontier lakes, Geneva, Constance and Lugano. They will perform both as broadcasting studios and points of contact.

"Idee Suisse 98" will have a special motto for August 1: "Switzerland - Abroad, Abroad - Switzerland". In all SBC's radio programmes in the four languages Swiss Abroad voices will be heard. How do you see Switzerland? What are your thoughts about the jubilee? SRI and Radio Suisse Romande will sponsor these August 1 broadcasts, which will be about Swiss Abroad though intended for domestic listeners.
