“Soliswiss”: Successful debut at the Swiss Abroad Congress

The Solidarity Fund for Swiss Abroad made its debut with its new name “Soliswiss” at this year’s Swiss Abroad Congress in Baden, and presented its new range of products. A successful start and great interest in Soliswiss services.

Thanks to Benito Invernizzi

At the general assembly Mariann Meier, England, warmly thanked Benito Invernizzi – who stood down from the management of the Fund at the end of 1997, after 27 years – for his exceptionally capable and faithful work. The board, management and staff of Soliswiss associate themselves with these thanks and wish Mr Invernizzi time, health and leisure to enjoy his well earned retirement.

particularly interested congress visitors were those making long-term provision for the future. In collaboration with Winterthur, Soliswiss offers four different insurance plans:

For the first time the Solidarity Fund for Swiss Abroad appeared at this year’s Swiss Abroad Congress in Baden as “Soliswiss”. The fund celebrated its 40th anniversary not only with a new name but at the same time with a number of other new features: the much-visited information stand stood out with its up-to-date appearance and Soliswiss logo. For the first time anyone interested could surf round the Soliswiss Internet home page (www.soliswiss.ch), and the Soliswiss team could present visitors to the stand not only with a range of products expanded with substantial services but also newly prepared documentation including the comprehensive product brochure. The brochure can be said to be a real success: informative, in bright colours and with an attractive layout (see the illustration) it was particularly well received by the public. In view of the great demand, the original edition is being reprinted in German, French, English, Italian and Spanish.

Swiss Abroad like to think ahead

The new range of products in the Soliswiss range which

- the retirement provision, so that retirement can be enjoyed without money worries;

- education insurance, to ensure that children and young people have the best possible school education;

- a starting capital plan, so that your personal projects for the future can turn into reality;

- a family protection plan which allows the insured sum to be immediately available to survivors if the insured person should die.

We shall be introducing the whole range of insurance provision plans in the next edition of Swiss Review. If you have questions they should be sent directly to the Solidarity Fund for Swiss Abroad:
