Address by the Ambassador of Switzerland

Werner Baumann

Dear fellow citizens,

After assignments in Asia and Europe, my wife Susanna and I have been very much looking forward to coming to one of the most beautiful countries of the Americas, Canada.

It is a privilege and a pleasure to live and work in Canada. The relations between Switzerland and Canada are good and warm and both countries share the same values. Furthermore the potential of the Canadian market for Swiss business is huge and in 2005 Switzerland became the 5th most important foreign investor in Canada. The French language, common to both countries, provides a special and important playfield for the cultural exchanges.

After only two months in Ottawa my wife Susanna and I feel very much at home in Canada. No wonder, as we participated in quite a few Swiss National Day celebrations, in Toronto, Sutton, in Ottawa and in Winchester. We very much enjoyed these memorable events which were beautifully set up and well organized by the different Swiss Clubs.

During my postings abroad I made the experience that it is very important for a Swiss diplomat to get together with the Swiss, who are living in his country of residence. You are in a way the Swiss ambassadors abroad, you represent Swiss values, Swiss traditions, Swiss culture. I am looking forward to being in regular contact with you, even though Canada is such a huge country.

Ottawa Valley Swiss Club

Golf Tournament

On June 25, Henri and Alice Graf organized the annual Golf Tournament of the Ottawa Valley Swiss Club. According to tradition, the tournament took place on the beautiful Pakenham Highlands golf course. 'Best ball' allowed players of any caliber to succeed - and everybody had fun. After the 'work' was done, the Grafs invited all players and non-players to a very enjoyable BBQ on their deck of their lovely home, directly on the golf course.

Here are the winners of this year's Tournament:

Winner of the D. Dayer Memorial Trophy

Placed equal: Nicole Widmer
Pierre Widmer
Rudi Duss

and:
Joe Hurschler
Dan Hurschler
Conrad Mineault
Jurg Roth

Longest putt (men):	Werner Sigrist
Longest putt (women):	Nicole Widmer
Closest to the hole (men):	Rene Muller
Closest to the hole (women):	Pam Hurschler
Closest to the line:	Lori Lee

Thank you to Henri and Alice Graf for organizing this event and to Jacqueline Rivas for her help.

Swiss National Day celebration in mid-town Ottawa

What a marvelous day and what beautiful grounds! In a rural setting of peace and natural beauty but only minutes from downtown Ottawa, the Billings Estate provided the ideal place to hold this year's First of August Celebration. Over 225 participants joined. The event started at 3:30 p.m. and ended only as it became dark, shortly before 10:00 p.m.

There was something for everyone: several kinds of Swiss sausages, desserts and beverages. The Montagna Singers joined us with their outstanding presentations. The O'Connor boys entertained us with their "fiddles". Klara Bruehlmann provided a full program for children. The much anticipated Tombola provided many great prizes.

During the official program, our Ambassador, His Excellency Werner Baumann addressed the assembled Swiss community, followed by the National Anthem sung by the Montagna Singers. The evening ended with a lampion parade of our young participants.

A great event for young and old(er), with activities, time to visit with friends from the Ottawa Swiss community, and simply for having fun at a beautiful setting in the middle of Ottawa.

Consul General Helfenstein's FAREWELL MESSAGE and STAFF CHANGES at the Consulate General in Vancouver

Dear Compatriots and Friends of Switzerland,

After 38 years of service in the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and having already reached the age of 62, I have decided to resign from my post on September 30, 2006, and to retire in Meggen/LU and Mâcon/F. I thought this would be the right moment to engage into the next phase of our lives. It has been an interesting and fulfilling career. Yes, it is true, my wife Nicole and I have not become rich during all the years we lived in seven different countries, but we have put a good deal of experience "under our belts" and take many fine memories with us into retirement. Our Vancouver posting was as challenging as it was rewarding, and... it was the best we ever had! Since we made so many Swiss and Canadian friends and experienced so much of their warmth and hospitality, we will depart with mixed feelings from Vancouver.

I have considered it a real privilege and honour to represent Switzerland in B.C, Alberta, Yukon and the Northwest Territories. During our four-year stay in Vancouver, it was with great pleasure that I served the Swiss community and contributed to the development and strengthening of the cultural, commercial and political ties between Western Canada and Switzerland. My endeavours have been greatly facilitated by the fact that Canada and Switzerland share a long-standing history of friendship. Bilateral relations are indeed excellent. I mention only two examples: Trade between Canada and Switzerland has increased by more than 50% in the last 4 years, from CAD 2 to 3 billion in 2005. According to Statistics Canada, in 2005, Switzerland was the 5th biggest direct investor in Canada (CAD 12 billion), ahead of Japan and Germany.

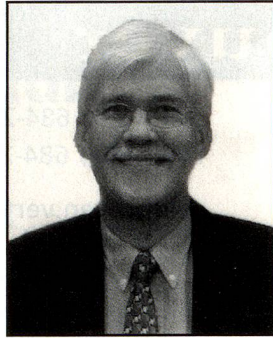

The Swiss abroad are quite often referred to as Ambassadors of Switzerland or the bridge builders and mediators between their old and new homelands. That is particularly true in Canada, where they have strongly contributed to the excellent reputation Switzerland enjoys in this country. For this, I wish to express my heartfelt thanks to all of you today! I have also often noticed with great satisfaction that the Swiss living in my consular district have found a fine balance between perfectly integrating into Canada while maintaining their Swiss heritage. Congratulations!

Now, regarding the Staff changes at the Consulate General: Gregor Fritsche, Deputy Head of Chancellery, arrived this July from Harare to replace Claude Voutat, who has been transferred to Lyon. Karin and Daniel Rüger, coming from Wellington, have joined us this August. They both are Consuls, Heads of Chancellery as well as Deputy Heads of Post and will replace Consul Max Künzle, who will go into retirement in November 2006. The Rügers, having four young children, will work part-time (job-sharing 50% each). Finally, from next November and for 6 months thereafter, Vancouver will have a Consul General ad interim. His name is Armin Meile who, until recently, has served as the Consul General in Houston. At the end of April 2007, he too will retire. It is hoped that a permanent Consul General will be assigned late spring/early summer 2007. I agree that makes a lot of staff changes. But don't worry: the good ones leave and the better ones take over! I am convinced that the new team will also serve you in the best possible way.

In saying farewell to all of you, Nicole and I want to express our sincerest wishes for a most successful professional career and for happiness in your personal lives as well. We wish we could have met with more of you, and hopefully on another occasion, back in Switzerland or during one of our future trips to Canada, this will be possible.

As I write this report it's hard to believe that half the shooting season is already over and by the time you get to read this report we will probably already be thinking about Christmas! We have had some very successful shooting competitions besides the regular Club- Champion shooting dates.

The Dine and Dance at the Chalet is always a good way to celebrate Mother's Day. Everybody had a good time and enjoyed the excellent buffet dinner prepared by our friend Andreas Fopp and his crew. A big thank you goes to all the helpers for organizing the Italian theme evening.

On the May long weekend, the Eidgenössische Feldschiessen and the Feldschlössli – Stich took place, with 26 Members shooting the Feldschiessen and 23 competing in the Feldschlössli- Stich with some excellent scores:

After all this serious shooting there was still time to do some Trapp shooting before dinner.

June 18 was the Bruno Huber Shoot. This has become a very popular competition and our sincere thanks go to Bruno for sponsoring this event. Every shooter walked away with a very nice prize.

The annual Schützenfest took place on October 7 and 8.

We will end the 300m shooting season with the Sausshoot on October 22nd which of course will be followed by our traditional "Blut und Leberwurst" feast. The Outdoors Club is joining us again after their afternoon walk in the Minnekada Park. The Sausshoot is for members only but the dinner is open to all.

Paul and Marlies Baumann

Report from the Swiss Crossbow Association Vancouver

By the end of June almost everybody had their suitcases packed and was on the way to Switzerland for the Eidgenössische Armbrustschützenfest in Ettiswil/LU. On Sunday, July 9, most of us met in this village for the official day and the parade. It was a very hot day and we were glad we only had a short walk ahead of us to the "Festhalle" where a delicious lunch awaited us. We attached our banner to one of the tables, as is the custom, so that everybody knew that this is where the Canadians would hang out. We met many friends and acquaintances, went to the shooting tent and watched some of the elite shooters score one ten after another.

Some of us stayed in a hotel in a beautiful village called Ruswil, located about half-way between Lucerne and Ettiswil. Ettiswil and Ruswil are located in the Rottal valley which boasts to have the most farmers, 220 to be exact, for the size of the area.

Wednesday was our practice day at the Rothenburg club and we all met there around 4 pm. Some of their shooters arrived and helped us adjust their crossbows which we were able to borrow for the next day. We organized a competition amongst us to make it more interesting and listened to the advice from these seasoned shooters. They prepared a delicious dinner for us and we enjoyed a very pleasant evening in their company. The whole club had come to Vancouver in 1991 and we looked at photos and reminisced about those days.

Thursday morning found us at the assigned targets and four of us donned the heavy pants and jackets and prepared for our turn. It was a very hot day again! Sweat was running down everywhere and it was difficult to concentrate, not only because of the heat but also because of the noise from the spectators and the setup itself – 55 targets in a row! We made it through the morning, shot the required programs, and many had excellent scores which gave them a double or triple medal. In the afternoon we watched some of the Veteranen Meisterschaft and were astonished at the many high scores.

In the evening we celebrated our achievements in the Festhalle and had a great time with our many friends. On Sunday, we met in Ettiswil again, to receive the "Lorbeerkrantz" and each Sektion received a Cheese Fondue Rechaud with Caquelon. It was a great ending to another well organized Eidgenössische!

Now we are all back in Vancouver and are applying the new knowledge gained to our own shooting skills.

Shortly before we left for Switzerland we were able to arrive at a satisfactory conclusion with the Swiss Society committee and the board for our transfer to the Mountain Range. We applaud the committee and everyone involved for their concern for our future and thank them for their common sense and fairness. We are very happy that we were able to solve this transfer in a spirit of friendship.

Elisabeth Reymond

Edmonton Swiss Rifle Club

When you'll read this report, our Fullbore season will already be over but we shoot Smallbore all year round. On April 22 we started with full throttle in our Fullbore season. Fellow shooters came out to the Range and dusted off their carbines; club rifles were taken along to be used by any member or guest who doesn't own their own. Throughout the season we shot Swiss shoots such as Feldschloesslistich, SSV, Einzelwettschiessen, Calgary & Vancouver Matches, Cantonal Schuetzenfest, our own Friendship & Klondike Matches and last but not least the Feldschiessen und Obligatorisch, which was shot by over 20 Swiss and others.

Our highlight of the season is always the Annual Schuetzenfest, a 2-day event on the Labour Day weekend, with participants within Canada, sometimes from Switzerland and other parts of the world. We always nourish and foster the camaraderie with tasty lunches and dinners and a few rounds of Jass will be played at most tables.

As any other club, we would not be able to operate throughout the year without the help of our dedicated members and volunteers. Now we look forward to the A.G.M. when the awards will be given out. Who wins Smallbore? Fullbore? Overall? Will it be the same shooter as last year or will there be a surprise? We shall keep you posted...

Trip to Kootenays, August 2006

Report by Valentina Karoway

It is hard to believe, that the year has past and we are traveling up to the Kootenays once again for our annual hiking adventures. As we are coming closer and closer to this tranquil Slocan Valley with its beautiful lake and magnificent mountains, I felt an adrenaline rush going through my body in anticipation of what is in the store for us for this week. My Swiss friend, Jolanda, and I decided again to stay at Arica's Gardens B&B. On Sunday night, Henry and Shirl, our hosts and guides, and some of our Outdoors Club members got together at Henry's place for a social gathering. There, we also met with Koebi's special guest, Paul Buehler, from Erlenbach, Switzerland, who we would soon realize to be a very strong and an excellent hiker and also a very kind and gentle man.

Since everyone had not yet arrived, on Monday we decided to take an easy hike around the lake and go for a swim. As we got together mid morning, Henry and Andy, the "adventurous two", planned an exploratory hike to Robertson Basin (sounded very interesting). In an instant, I chose to go with them. 'For better or worse' they took me along. There was no path to the peak – just bushwhacking! For nearly two hours we went through nothing but prickly bush, except for animal's paths here and there. After the bush area was over, we had to climb up over the giant rocks. Scratched all over, exhausted to the max, and nearly giving up at the foot of the basin, I decided to stay behind. My two strong hiking buddies convinced me to keep going. They even helped with carrying my backpack to the top (always be grateful). The view was magnificent! From our 780 meter high-point, we could see clearly, on this sunny day the vista of Valhalla's peaks: Mt. Dag, Wolf

Henry and Valentina

Ears, Gradstein and beloved Gimli Peak. The trip down was challenging as well. We took a different route in hope of finding a shorter way to our van. Being an excellent navigator, Henry brought us to the road just a few meters away from our vehicle. Thanks a million Henry! Shortly after we started driving, we came across a meadow where we spotted a big-healthy looking Grizzly Bear. Startled by our engine noise, he dashed into the forest. What a wonderful surprise and an astonishing sight! All the injuries and scratches on my body did not matter anymore, I had no regrets (back at the B&B, I knew Jane, my hostess, would take care of my wounded body). The rest of the outdoors hikers had a much less dramatic and somewhat leisurely hike by Slocan Lake and a refreshing swim in the lake.

Lunch Break

On the Ridge

Tuesday, all fourteen of us and Stanley (a handsome black Lab, the pride and joy of Brunold's family) took a gorgeous walk on an old railroad track, from Three Forks area to New Denver. It was a hot day and everybody was grateful to stroll through the forest while admiring and enjoying beautiful flowers such as St. John Wort and white and pink daisies. To our surprise and delight we spotted the Indian- Pipe plant, a rare and an interesting flower. At some point we crossed the river on a self-propelled small cable car. It was lots of fun. With a little bit of hesitation and discomfort, Stanley made it across – while later he looked brave 'as always' and proud of himself. As we proceeded further, we observed old mine ruin remnants and bits of railroad tracks.

Wednesday was a perfect day for our major hike - Mt. Carlyle ! We all geared-up first thing in the morning and were ready to go. Our 'first-rate' drivers took us through the toughest and most challenging 'logging road'. When we finally got to our parking spot, Mother Nature presented us with one of her splendors, a reward for being adventurous. We came to a spectacular part of the valley, covered with chicory, purple fire weed, pink and white daisies spread throughout the beautifully green and healthy forest. Plenty of young perfectly-shaped pine trees were shooting out between the mature trees in promise to fill up the forest in a few years to come. The sounds of a creek rushing through this beautiful valley gave a sense of heavenly splendor. We began our journey into the beautiful forest slowly gaining in elevation and being an attentive to the breath taking meadows and inhaling crystal-clear air. When we came above the tree line, we moved onto a challenging rock path. We came across the wreckage of an old mine, once ravaged by an avalanche. We saw the small sections of wooden structure and some metal kitchen household items, scattered around the rocks as a silent witness, with many stories to tell. In the midst of all that mass of rocks, we noticed a single little green tree that had found a home for itself -is that how it all begins? We came to the pass leading to Mt Carlyle on the left, another ridge to the right and the valley just ahead. While a few explored a cabin in those meadows, others stayed around the pass admiring the beautiful view and enjoying well-deserved rest. Peter, Edi and Elisabeth Von Ah (a local lady) climbed the ridge and claimed the reward by observing the beautiful panorama all around as far as the eye can see. Our most adventurous trio: Henry, Andy and Peter were up to conquer Carlyle Peak which is around 2630+ m high. They reached the top, sending loud yodels throughout the valley - the mission was complete successfully. Good job Swiss team!

Thursday, everybody took an easy day, doing different things to their liking.

Friday, was the last day for most of us up in the Kootenays. We must go to Lookout Point once more before we leave. Unfortunately, the day turned out to be not so great - showers, some sunny periods throughout that morning. No fear! With rain gear and Peter with his camouflage umbrella, we proceeded to the viewpoint 1680 m see level, 730 m from our cars. We traveled on a logging road which was in good condition for a change. Though some parts were challenging, we steadily kept going. In two hours we reached the Lemon Creak Lookout. Because of the clouds moving fast above, and mist rising from the previous shower, we only had a few sunny breaks to glance at the view around us. This beautiful mountain panorama unveiled before us bit-by-bit and section by section, as to tease and entice us to come back next year. On the way back we had a great time to converse about our past hikes and adventures. At some point I was ahead of everyone, so while I was waiting for them to catch up, I observed our group - from early fifties to early eighties years young, some of us with required knee support due to injuries or just aging 'wear and tear' yet still going strong. The love for nature, the mountains and an excitement to reach those peaks with a will to challenge our physical ability to the fullest and the years of wonderful friendships brought us all together.

Naturally every night after our hikes, we got together for meals: potluck, spaghetti night, fondue (always a great success), after meals games or just friendly chat around the table, fifteen of us in the cabin just like one family – "Henry's family!" for ten years now. Thank you again Henry, from all of us, for your generosity and hospitality from the bottom of our hearts.

Dinner Party – SOC Hikers

I can hardly imagine fall is around the corner as I write this. The Okanagan sun is shining and the temperature is steady around 36 degrees but alas, the submission deadline is here for the winter issue!

Our annual Spring Dance, which we renamed Trachtenfest for 2006, attracted the usual sold out crowd! It was a hit from start to finish. We changed locations this year to Schubert Center in Vernon. The new venue was a great change - a beautiful hall with lots of room. People arrived and mingled until the dinner announcement was made and they hurried to their assigned tables. Dinner this year was wiener schnitzel - delicious! The service was quick, efficient and friendly. Also with the format changing this year to include more dance music, the dance floor was put to good use! It was great to see members from near and far out to enjoy the spring dance!

The August 1 celebration in Coldstream (Vernon) also attracted a full house. The beautiful Coldstream Creek Park is the perfect setting for a potluck. The playground keeps the kids busy and the shelter complete with fireplace keeps the adults happy! The salads and desserts were fantastic and the coffee donated by Rico Ronzani ended the meal perfectly. People came from near and far to enjoy a mini concert put on by the Vernon Blaskapelle, under the direction of John Doerwaldt. It was a beautiful night topped off with the longest lampion cortege we've seen in quite awhile!

Our second August 1 celebration was held in Cache Creek at the Fischers Farm. 2006 proved to be the year of the crowds. The event was very well attended! Most camped out at the site and many were seen playing soccer until it was absolutely impossible to see the ball! Young and old alike enjoy this event with great food, good camaraderie, events to keep them busy and a beautiful location. Many thanks to the Fischer family for their hospitality.

We help Swiss people in need in and around Montreal & support other worthy causes

On March 14, the newly elected president, Susanna Hane, welcomed the general assembly and the newly elected committee members. At the same time it was learned that the regular and most appreciated meeting place, namely the St. Moritz restaurant, would close its doors by the end of April. With great effort, the Swiss Women have found a new place and the regular meetings will be held at restaurant "Comme Chez Soi", on 297 Lakeshore Road in Pointe-Claire, every second Tuesday of the month.

The Club was founded more than 85 years ago to create a social network to help elderly Swiss people in need. Today the Edelweiss Swiss Women's Club has a membership of about 75 women and supports local causes such as women and children's shelters and gives support to elderly Swiss members by regular contact or special activities. The main fundraiser is the popular annual bazaar. This will be held on Saturday, November 4th.

The Swiss Women also supported the Swiss National Day celebrations held on Mount Sutton, which were held this year on July 29.

The Swiss ladies are looking forward to welcoming new members.

News from Nova Scotia

The Swiss living in Nova Scotia celebrated August 1st again. This year we had two gatherings

One event on July 30 in Halifax at Point Pleasant Park, organized by Mrs. Hanni Taylor and Mrs Beatrice Schori. Many Swiss living in this area participated at this Picnic near Black Rock Beach in the center of Halifax, in order to celebrate our National Holiday. For the organizers it was an important date since most of the participants also attended when we had our first National Holiday 25 years ago.

The other gathering was organized on August 1 by the previous Swiss Association SCCA at 'Domaine de Grand Pre' Winery by the Host Hanspeter Stutz and his Crew of the Restaurant 'Le Caveau'. The excellent food was prepared by Swiss Chef Alex, Hanspeter Stutz's son in law. This National Day celebration was also attended by several visitors from Switzerland.

On both occasions we all had a great time.

Changes at the Consulate General in Toronto

Deputy Consul General Claudio Leoncavallo and his wife, Monique, left us in June for their new destination, the Ivory Coast. Mr. Leoncavallo, who was stationed for three years in Toronto, has been appointed Deputy Head of Mission to our Embassy in Abidjan. I would like to extend my sincere appreciation to him for his engagement here, especially for his work in commercial and cultural affairs. I would also like to thank his wife, Monique, for her assistance and support and wish the Leoncavallos a happy and prosperous future.

Mr. Leoncavallo's successor, Mr. Philippe Crevoisier, arrived in Toronto at the beginning of September. He is accompanied by his wife, Vivian, and their three children. Mr. Crevoisier is no stranger to the Consulate General in Toronto, having served here as Consular Attaché from 1986 to 1989. He is looking forward to his second assignment in this great city.

And now it is my turn to say goodbye to you, dear compatriots. After 35 years of service with the Swiss Federal Department of Foreign Affairs, the time has come for us to return to Switzerland to retire. Our stay in Canada has been most interesting and enjoyable. We will always have fond memories of this country. My wife, Marie-Luise, and I thank you for your trust and support and wish you and your families happiness and the very best of health.

Farewell to Mr. & Mrs. Hagmann

In the month of September, Mr. Jean-Claude Hagmann, our Consul General, left Toronto to start his retirement in Switzerland. We were very sorry to see Mr. and Mrs. Hagmann leave as they have been a great support to the Swiss Club Toronto.

During his lengthy diplomatic service, Mr. Hagmann's posts included Paris, Islamabad, London, Yaoundé, Budapest, Addis Abeba, San Francisco, Teheran (head of Foreign Interest Section), Bern (assistant to the Deputy Secretary General) and in Dubai (Consul General) prior to coming to Toronto.

Since November 16, 2003 (from warm Dubai into the cold of Canada) Mr. Hagmann has been Consul General, with jurisdiction over the Provinces of Ontario, Manitoba and Saskatchewan.

Mr. & Mrs. Hagmann have been good friend to our club. We thank them for all the work, effort and support they have given us. The Swiss Club Toronto wishes them many happy years in their new home back in Switzerland.

Sincerely,
Erika Tièche

Swiss National Day Celebration

Our 1st of August celebrations took place at the Country Heritage Park in Milton on Sunday, July 23. Despite some rain, we had a great turn-out of compatriots from Greater Toronto. To help us celebrate 100 years of diplomatic presence in Toronto, we were honored by the presence of our ambassador Dr. Werner Baumann and our Consul General Mr. Jean-Claude Hagmann and their wives. The Spittel Band from Stans provided foot-tapping music and

Adrian from Trident Catering had us enjoying delicious Swiss food. Suzi Hubler, as in previous years, occupied the kids with fun games and interesting crafts. And to round off a perfect day, one of our members won the highly priced trip for two to Switzerland, (the winning price of a contest organized by the consulate in Toronto) and the Tombola which netted numerous fabulous prizes

Everybody had a wonderful day, a day when we could meet and greet friends and have the opportunity to reflect on our heritage.

Centennial for the Zunti Family

One of Saskatchewan's pioneer families is celebrating the centennial of the arrival of two ancestors in Canada. It was only one year after Saskatchewan became a province, in spring 1906, when two brothers with the last name of Zuenti (later anglicised to "Zunti") set out from the Swiss village of Eschenbach in the canton of Lucerne to take up a homestead in Luseland, Saskatchewan. The men were soon joined by Swiss brides. Together with their industrious wives, the brothers applied talent, intelligence and tenacity to become successful and highly respected farmers.

The two Zunti families combined had no less than 29 children. Equally astonishing is that many of these children, who are now in their seventies and eighties, can still speak Swiss German, sing German songs and they have not forgotten how to play the game of Jass. They learned these skills during their childhood from their parents on the remote Saskatchewan farm. The families are an inspiration to all Swiss immigrants.

The Swiss Club Saskatoon prides itself for counting many of the Zunti descendants as active club members. We salute them and we are conveying to the entire Zunti family our sincere congratulations to their 100th anniversary in Saskatchewan!

Other Happenings on the Prairies

We are looking back to a great June Picnic on the lovely acreage of Elisabeth and Kaspar Wirz near Pike Lake. The weather had been very wet before and even on the morning of the picnic the skies still looked grey and angry. Everyone knew the terrain would be soggy and therefore only the very bravehearted dared to take the trip over gravel roads. These people, however, got rewarded with the most beautiful sunshine in the afternoon. Frolicking children chased frogs around a pond and the grown-ups watched the hummingbirds. Lively conversation was taking place everywhere. It was truly a good day.

The celebration of the Swiss Federal Day was held on Saturday, July 29 at the gorgeously decorated farm of Roesli and Georg Nievergelt near Hepburn. We listened to the church bells of Hombrechtikon, ZH, before we heard the speech to the Swiss Abroad by the Swiss Federal President Moritz Leuenberger. Everyone had a good time, especially the children who, as city-dwelling kids, enjoyed exploring all the interesting things a dairy farm can offer, from watching cute calves to examining the "fascinating" manure disposal site.

We are looking forward to our Annual Luncheon and Meeting on October 1. This is a popular event every year. Details can be found in our Fall Newsletter.

Swiss Club of Manitoba News

This summer we, once again, held our traditional picnics at three different locales. Attendance was excellent, except in the West - where we would like to see more participation! These picnics are always a happy get-together and this should not be lost! Thank you to all the host families.

August 1 has come and gone. The Eastern Celebration held at the River Ranch was a success, thanks to the Whitemouth Swiss showing up in full force! Ursula Dölger and Alex Mannhart played the Schwyzerörgeli and everybody enjoyed and it felt like back home, thank to you both, we really appreciate it!

Participation in shooting contest was quite good. We would like to express a big "Thank you" to all the sponsors for the generous prizes that were donated. Here are the winners - congratulations:

|---------------|-----------|
| 1. Blair Lion | 31 points |
| 2. Adolf Gut | 29 points |
| 3. Adolf Gut | 28 points |

We had a total 22 winners, bravo!

Last but not least thanks to Urs & Hanna Schlup for hosting the event and sponsoring a spicy pork chop to celebrate their 2 x 60 birthdays! Congratulations! All the Best for the next 120 years!

The western celebration was held at the Vallotton Farm and we thank Marie for hosting the event. I hope they had as much fun as we had. A slight disappointment was the sale of the August 1 pins. I would like to remind everyone, the money raised from the sale of these pins goes to municipalities and towns. Over the past few weeks, we heard in the news how Canada struggled to get Canadians out of Lebanon. Now, if a Swiss gets in a situation where rescue becomes necessary, it is your municipality or town that has to foot the bill. With purchasing a pin, we show our support and solidarity!

In closing I would like to thank everyone for showing and renewing interest in our club.

Your President
Ueli Messerli
