Consulate. Biometric Data for your Passport

Swiss Citizens registered with the Consulate General of Switzerland in Sydney who wish to apply for a Swiss Passport are required to apply online as a Swiss living abroad through www.schweizerpass.ch. Following the approval of the application, the biometric data (photo and finger prints) is then normally recorded at the Consulate General of Switzerland in Sydney.

Given the size of the consular district and extensive travel involved for many Swiss citizens to comply with this legal obligation, we offer the possibility for those members of the colony living far from Sydney, to organize biometric data collection at any cantonal passport office in Switzerland or Swiss representation overseas with the required facility, while travelling to Switzerland or abroad.

Persons interested to use this exceptional procedure should contact the Consulate General of Switzerland in Sydney at least one month prior to the planned travel.

Ernst Steinmann, Consul General

CSA. President's Meeting at Embassy September 27

The first conference of the Swiss Club Presidents in Australia, September 27 in Canberra, is taking shape. Already, we have 34 interested participants from Australia and we are likely to get the visit from a Delegate from Berne, Mr. Peter Zimmerli, responsible for Consular Services. This will enable us to get first hand information on the most urgent topics concerning the Swiss Abroad, like the draft law on the Swiss Abroad. ASO may also delegate someone, yet to be confirmed.

If you still want to register, or have any questions, please send me an email at beatek@ozemail.com.au.

Beat Knoblauch, CSA Delegate

Editorial. Move to CH/ Spring CSA Meeting

Dear Readers

After 14 years in Australia, my wife and I moved to Switzerland on Jan 26, 2014 to enjoy our second careers and everything else Europe has on offer. I am very pleased to announce that I will still continue as Editor of the Swiss Review for Australia. Further, it has been confirmed by Bern that I can continue as a CSA Delegate, for now. As it would be ideal to have delegates from within a country, I would like to encourage everyone to put your name forward for this interesting role. If you need any detailed information, please get in contact with the Delegates via www.swiss.org.au/csa.

One advantage of residing in Switzerland is that I can visit all CSA meetings twice a year at virtually no travel cost. So here is a wrap-up of what has been discussed at the spring session of March 22:

- The initiative «Against mass immigration» created quite a stir; 12 cantons, which had data separated between Swiss residents and expats living overseas showed that expats voted with a higher majority against the initiative. The discussion was emotional and some Delegates said that it is not the purpose of the CSA to politicise the issue and stick to the decision made; certainly a hot topic for many years to come, wherever you are in politics.
- SwissCommunity passed 30000 members and is growing. It is the preferred platform initiated by the ASO, to discuss any topic amongst the expat community. Are you part of it already?
- The «Auslandsschweizergesetz» has passed the Ständerat on March 17. It is the most significant upcoming piece of legislation for us Expats. The CSA likes to pay tribute to Filippo Lombardi, Ständerat, for all his work and engagement.
- A presentation was made about the «Vorsorge 2020». It makes a new proposal of how to securely finance the AHV and BVG beyond 2020. The draft will be presented to the parliament by end of 2014.
- We also had an interesting presentation by prohelvetia. They have a great website about Swiss art around the world. For more details, please visit: www.swissartselection.ch.

If anyone is visiting Switzerland, and you have some spare time, why not drop-in for a chat and coffee. Just send me an email.

All the best and hopefully see you soon.

At our AGM, new members were voted into the committee and I personally have handed over the reigns as President to Ursula Knecht. Ursula is enthusiastic to keep the existing functions going and create a strong membership.

Mid-February we held our second Bickley Dam swim and picnic. This was again a huge success with lots of families attending and in the hot weather, the crispy water provided a welcome refuge.

A few dates have already been set for the year, starting with the Easter Picnic in April. The committee has decided that we will organise the Metzgete / Slaughter Feast this year after a break last year. Details will be sent out in a newsletter and available on the website. The Fondue is also being held again on June 21.

If you have not been to our events, I encourage you to come along to at least one this year, to experience the casual atmosphere and catch up with people from the home land. If you have children, a visit to the property in Gidgegannup is a must. In times when most kids are only used to structured play, the bush setting lets them and their imaginations run wild in a fenced-off area.

Best wishes

Dear members and friends,

Our coast weekend in early March was attended by twenty members, a healthy number considering there was a long weekend in Canberra with lots on the calendar. On Saturday night, we held a raclette under the stars between two threatening storms, one over the sea and the other along the mountains. We were spared from having to seek shelter and instead, experienced an extraordinary lightning display throughout the night. It was just as if we had taken the Canberra Enlightenment festival with us to the coast. Earlier on Saturday, some played a game of golf at Batemans Bay. Five members joined in the fun, making the nine holes in just over four hours. Anyone who plays golf can imagine how much fun that was. A favourable tide on Sunday morning made it possible to safely walk around the headland to Depot Beach. It was a great outing for young and old. Monika, our resident Geologist, explained some of the interesting layered formations along the cliffs. We even saw a young octopus in his garden, just like the Beatles described it in their song 'Octopus's garden'. Of course, there was the mandatory collection of shells and pebbles, and at the end of it all, Gaby found a sizeable rock she never knew she had in her bag. You see, just join the Canberra Swiss Club and you are assured to have some fun.

Dear Swiss compatriots,

The new Year has seen a few successful events organised by the NSW Swiss club. The recent Jazz Picnic was well attended with lots of Young Swiss Pa-rents and their babies. The Swiss club offered drinks which made all the difference. Also the BBQ, which was "again supplied by the Club" at Bronte Beach where 30 people had a great time, even though the Rain interrupted us for while.

Don't forget to visit the Chestnut Farm with us on Sunday, the 27th. April. Time and place is on the website and Face book. The ever popular Buure Zmorge is on again on Sunday the 18th of May at the Austrian club at Frenchs Forest. Please visit the new website for more details about all Events.

The weather was more than kind; it was brilliant on the night of our Annual Harbour Cruise, taking in the sites of Sydney harbour as the sun sank slowly in the west. On board a spacious ferry which was more than suitable to the task, guests enjoyed an evening of music with Hugo and Walter of the SwissOz Connection, Sigi Ackermann and his Schweizerhandlorgeli, ourselves and fine ambiance.

On April 5, we took part in a German Saengerfest at the Concordia Club, Tempe. Being involved for the first time was most interesting for our group.

Our traditional celebration of the Swiss National Day will be held on Sunday 3 August 2014 at the Castle Hill Show Ground. More details will follow in the next issue.

Our regular "Ladies Lunch" on the first Friday of every month continues to be popular, as is the "Gentlemen's Lunch" on the same day. Following a successful trial and by popular request, it will be proposed to the AGM to combine the two and have one lunch, meeting at a different venue on the Sunshine Coast every month to catch up and have a chat. Details are placed on our website and sent out via direct email.

We invite all Swiss on the Sunshine Coast, their families and friends to join us for these fun events, to enjoy good company, keep in touch with old mates and make new friends!
