The CSA (Council of Swiss Abroad) had its Spring Session on March 22. Marc Godat already reported on some issues in the last edition of the Swiss Review; here some more insights from Beat Knoblauch:

- The Swiss Referendum against mass migration which was accepted by the majority of the Swiss, has been discussed at length at Council level. The President, Mr. Jacques-Simon Eggly, stated that the Organisation of the Swiss Abroad fought against acceptance of the initiative as the consequences for the Swiss Abroad could be very negative, especially also with regards to the student exchange program, Erasmus, in Europe. Mr Eggly also stated that the Organisation of the Swiss Abroad has to take political decisions where the interests of the Swiss Abroad are involved.
- Ambassador Bruegger, Head of Consular Services in the Department of Foreign Affairs, stressed the following points: he confirms that some items on the agenda of the CSA have been there for quite some time and need to be resolved, such as bank accounts for the Swiss Abroad, electronic voting, and the Law of the Swiss Abroad.
- After 28 years as CEO of the ASO, Mr Rudolf Wyder went into retirement and was elected with great acclaim Honorary Member. As his replacement, Mrs Sarah Masantuoni and Mrs Ariane Rusticelli were elected as co-directrices.
- Regarding "direct" elections for CSA members, Ms Sarah Masantuoni presents the result from a larger opinion poll (6,000 replies). Some of the highlights: the CSA is not very well known but is in a position to represent the interests of the Swiss Abroad effectively. The majority thinks that a direct election by those Swiss who are registered to vote in Switzerland is positive. The Swiss Clubs abroad are encouraged to promote the CSA in order to get candidates or people interested in offices.
- This year's ASO Congress is in Baden from 15–17 August 2014.

REGIONAL EDITION

AUSTRALIA

Embassy. Message from the Ambassador

The relations between Australia and Switzerland are continuously intensifying. Just last year, the Swiss-Australian relations had a highlight, with the visit of Federal Councilor Didier Burkhalter to Canberra in October. Mr. Burkhalter was the first Minister of Foreign Affairs welcomed by the new Government to Canberra. And he was the first Swiss Foreign Minister to officially visit the Pacific Islands.

During this visit, the Hon Julie Bishop and Federal Councilor Didier Burkhalter signed two agreements: one on the strategic co-operation between Switzerland and Australia, wherein the Ministers agree to have biannual political meetings; the other Memorandum of Understanding was on Science, Research and Innovation. Both agreements will strengthen our bilateral relations.

In March this year, Julie Bishop visited Switzerland. Outcome? Both countries now explore ways to find synergies in our diplomatic network. Australia wants to expand in Africa, where Switzerland has a large network. And we support Australia in order to reactivate its Embassy in Berne.

In July, there will be a Senior Official Talk in Canberra. Assistant Secretary of State and Ambassador Beat Nobs will meet his Australian counterpart Assistant Secretary Paul Grigson. Objective of the talk is to start implementing the projects discussed between the two Ministers.

The National Day of Switzerland in Canberra will be celebrated at the Residence on Thursday the 31st of July. Individual Invitations will be sent out.

I have as well the sad obligation to inform the Swiss Community that on Easter Sunday unexpectedly and peacefully our dear friend Hans Peter Studer, First Secretary and Chief of Chancellery, passed away. Hans Peter has worked for the Ministry of Foreign Affairs since 1979. We have lost a valuable and dear friend. The farewell ceremony was celebrated in Canberra with friends and family.

The Fondue evening was an evening filled with entertainment, music, and dance but of course most importantly with a delicious fondue produced by our new "Master Chef" Lisa Martin and her fantastic helpers.

The evening started to roll-on and between the food, old and young had a go at tossing a coin at a Kirsch bottle, had a dance to the Swiss music provided by Carmen Trochler, moderator from the Swiss Radio Corner "Schweizercke".

It was my pleasure to welcome so many "Jasser and Jasserinnen" to Adelaide.
The 4th Australian Jass Championship
2014 was over the Queen's Birthday Long weekend. Many players came to present their skills and enjoyed the great program over the weekend. Many sponsors supported us. A very special "Thank you" to Dieter Loelliger and Ruth Bloch for organizing this remarkable Championship.

National Day: Come and join us at Claudia and Walter Preisig's property with a big wood fire and a bigger BBQ.
With lots of entertainment and music to dance and sing along. The "Swiss"
Radio Corner" will surprise us.

Almost 200 guests enjoyed this year's Metzgete. The Swiss Club was invited by the Austria Club and the menu was adjusted to accommodate our Swiss wishes. We were very well looked after and the feedback was: "very good,
tender meat, very tasty, delicious".
The "Alphornbläser" were also well anticipated and very entertaining.

Our next event promises to be equally entertaining. Imagine an overcast, cold, rainy (or snow-white) winters'
day outside and you're in a warm, cosy chalet with a wood fire crackling away.
We are inviting you to join us for the

Dear members and friends,

In April we held our 'Dinner Cruise' on Canberra's Lake Burley Griffin. A total of 48 guests attended from as far away as Sydney and northern NSW. It was an evening of socialising and catching up with friends over a delicious 3-course meal and a glass of wine. After dinner and under guidance of our conductor, everyone joined in to sing a series of well-known songs.

The bushwalk in May to Molonglo gorge was attended by a group of keen and hardy walkers who braved the rather chilly conditions on an otherwise mostly sunny day. A picnic and bbq followed to satisfy our rumbling stomachs. Once more we were reminded about how lucky we are to live in a place where the bush is right on our doorstep, with little more than a short drive to many interesting destinations.

The Swiss National Day celebration will be held on Aug 2. The popular monthly "Ladies Lunch" and "Gentlemen's Lunch" will now be combined on the first Friday of every month. The luncheons are at different venues on the Sunshine Coast and are a great opportunity to catch up and have a chat.

We invite all Swiss on the Sunshine Coast and their families and friends to join us for these fun events, to enjoy good company, keep in touch with old mates and make new friends!
