REGIONAL NEWS

SOUTHERN AFRICA

Editorial

Dear readers,

■ As the pandemic has put additional pressure on many Africans, the support of organisations such as Rotary International is very much appreciated. Rotary International has been instrumental in ending Polio in Africa while promoting peace, fighting disease, providing clean water, supporting education, growing local economies, providing maternal and child support, supporting the environment, and facilitating disaster response. This year, Rotary International celebrates 100 years in Africa with an online event which includes leading visionaries, pioneers, leaders and icons. I salute everyone who is making a difference, no matter how big or small.

■ Warm regards,

GISELA PIERCEY,
EDITOR «SWISS REVIEW
SOUTHERN AFRICA»

100 years of Rotary in Africa

2021 sees Rotary International celebrate 100 years in Africa – a century of doing good and facilitating impactful socio-economic change on the continent. Rotary International has been instrumental in ending Polio in Africa while promoting peace, fighting disease, providing clean water, supporting education, growing local economies, providing maternal and child support, supporting the environment, and facilitating disaster response.

This year's Rotary Africa Centennial International Conference is taking place on the 24 and 25 April and will see international delegates gather online to hear from and network with visionaries, pioneers and icons. These include the likes of Bill Gates, Philanthropist and co-chair of the Gates Foundation, Kenyan designer and eco innovator Anyango Mpinga who has taken inspiration from her culture and childhood in Nairobi.

ANCHOR SPONSOR SHINES A SPOTLIGHT ON AFRICAN INNOVATION

African Brand Architects, a South African based turn key Marketing Agency with an all African women's corporate team and a branch in Switzerland, is the Anchor Sponsor. "We have aligned with Rotary because our vision for the short, medium and long term align with Rotary's vision. We share a passion for all things African - we want to see African potential materialised and African networks and businesses prosper," director Shereen Hunter says.

Projects in South Africa

Swiss Rotary members are implementing many projects in South Africa. The Rotary Club Sempachersee supports a sewing project in the townships of Cape Town.

With donated sewing machines and materials, and under proper guidance, women and girls learn to make insulating bags, as well as hygiene products. The same Club in cooperation with the Children's Resource Center in Cape Town, supports the establishment of model plant gardens.

As the COVID-pandemic started, the Rotary Club of Toggenburg in partnership with the local Rotary Club of Hout Bay, began providing food to children and families in two townships.

Swiss Rotary members regularly organize and coordinate Rotary International's Youth Exchange program.

SolidarMed-led consortium fights NCD epidemic

Non-Communicable Diseases (NCDs) such as diabetes, high blood pressure and impaired mental health are the number one cause of death and disability globally. A consortium of implementation partners and researchers led by the Swiss NGO SolidarMed proposes a multi-disciplinary research for development program fighting this disproportionate health and socio-economic burden in Lesotho.

The Swiss Agency for Development and Cooperation (SDC) will fund the program with 6 Mio CHF over the next five years. Lesotho faces a situation where the health burden of NCDs now overtakes HIV and other infectious diseases. The country has successfully managed to reduce HIV transmission and AIDS-related deaths due to a decentralized HIV testing and care strategy. A key attribute of this strategy is the involvement of community health workers (CHW) to guarantee access of testing and treatment to the rural population. The awarded program aims at applying similar approaches in the fight against NCDs.

The program called ComBaCaL (Community Based chronic disease Care Lesotho) has been jointly developed by a consortium led by the Swiss NGO SolidarMed together with the Swiss Tropical and Public Health Institute (Swiss TPH), the National University of Lesotho, the Lesotho Ministry of Health, and an affected community member.

Further collaborators include the University of Zurich (Department of Informatics) and an eHealth start-up from Lesotho.

Online desk for Swiss nationals residing abroad

It is our pleasure to inform you that the Federal Department of Foreign Affairs (FDFA) is providing Swiss nationals residing abroad with an online desk for consular services.

This allows you to view and update your data, for example change of address or civil status. You can also order certain documents online and pay for them by credit card. The desk can be accessed on www.eda.admin.ch under 'Online desk' and on the websites of the Swiss representations. We plan to expand the services on an ongoing basis and hope that with this innovation, Swiss nationals abroad will be able to communicate even more easily with the Swiss representations.

If you have any questions, please contact the Regional Consular Centre Southern Africa in Pretoria (southernafrica@eda.admin.ch).
