RELATIONS WITH INTERNATIONAL INSTITUTIONS

During 1972, Mr. A. Dominique Micheli, ICRC delegate to international organizations, in close co-operation with the Department of Principles and Law and the Operations Department, continued his contacts with the United Nations and its Specialized Agencies, as well as with the Council of Europe and non-governmental organizations.

With the members of the Legal Division, Mr. Micheli followed the question of the development of international humanitarian law, dealt with by the United Nations as " Respect for Human Rights in Armed Conflicts ".

Other points, such as the protection of journalists engaged in dangerous missions, the work of the UN Special Committee to Investigate Israeli Practices Affecting the Human Rights of the Population of the Occupied Territories, racial and decolonization problems (Southern Africa), and terrorism, also received his attention and required repeated personal contact with the United Nations officials in charge of those matters.

In his contacts with senior members of the United Nations secretariat, the ICRC delegate to international organizations had occasion to concern himself with a number of problems relating to the Operations Department, such as the situation in Burundi, the expulsion of Asians from Uganda and the situation in the Asian sub-continent.

In New York, Mr. Micheli was assisted part of the time by Mr. Louis Jaquinet.
