AUCKLAND DISTRICT SOCIAL NEWS.

Attention everyone: - The Auckland Social Committee hopes to see a fine day and a lot of happy faces at their annual picnic on February 20th, 1944, at Pt. Chevalier Reserve.

The tide is at 3.30 so those of you who were unfortunate enough to miss out on their yearly wash last year - come along and get in the swim and be up to date.

Tea, hot water, milk, sugar, games, fun for young and old provided. A guaranteed cure for the 'Blues'. Smiles are the order of the day.

"Where's Joe?". "Gone for a good time with the Swissies at Pt. Chevalier."

B. Haltmeyer,
Secretary for the Auckland Social Committee.

SUBSCRIPTION - FEE.

Numerous members have not yet forwarded the annual fee due October last. We know that many of our friends on farms were too busy harvesting the last few weeks; also the festive season intervened, but we now wish to publish another reminder. When you are near the Post Office next time do not forget to buy your postal note and send it to the Secretary, or local district collector. Defaulters cannot expect to receive the 'Helvetia' much longer without helping to defray printing expenses.

NEW MEMBERS: It is with pleasure we publish the names of the following friends who joined our Society recently: -

MR. JOS. CHAMBERLAIN, KAPONGA
MR. ALOIS SCHULER, R.D., HAWERA.
MR. R. STUCKI, WHAKAHORA ROAD, SPRINGDALE, WAITOA.

ADDITION TO MEMBERSHIP LIST PUBLISHED IN OCTOBER ISSUE:

MR. F. SCHULER, TOKOROA, PUTARURU.
