AFTERNOON PARTY AT TE AROHA.

During their recent brief sojourn at Te Aroha, Consul and Mrs. Walter Schmid invited their compatriots in Te Aroha and the immediate surroundings to afternoon tea at the Hot Springs Hotel. Twentyfive guests attended and the party was honoured by the presence of Father Doherty and County Councillor Kennedy.

The party afforded Dr. and Mrs. Schmid the pleasure of getting to know some of their compatriots whom they had never met before, and everyone made the most of the opportunity for a good chat. During the afternoon, traditional accordion music was played by Mr. Herbert Schuler and his charming daughter, and Mr. Alois Mathis's talented young daughter Elsie played piano solos.
