SUNDRY NEWS.

Dr. R. Cottier of Bern has been made President of the Traffic Committee for the Marshall Plan.

At the Pestalozzi village at Trogen there are now children from seven different nations; eighteen young children have just arrived from Finland. Children who are in dire need of assistance will soon arrive from Hamburg, also children from Vienna, Salzburg, Berlin and Hungary.

In his work "La resa degli ottocentomila" ("The surrender of the 800,000") the Italian, Dr. Ferruccio Lanfranchi, has paid tribute to various Swiss personalities who have played a great part in the ending of the war in Italy and in the preservation of the northern Italian provinces. He says that the assistance given by Switzerland on the occasion of negotiations between the Germans and the Americans was so valuable that "Switzerland well deserves the eternal gratitude of the Italian people."

The "London Star" voices the opinion that the Swiss Army is the strongest and
