"ALBEINA."

A holiday home for Swiss from abroad.

Swiss from abroad going to Switzerland for a holiday do not always wish to stay in the modern and luxurious hotels, but rather like to live in an alpine house or in a chalet; at the same time they do not want to be deprived of the service available in a modern hotel.

In order to fill this need, the "Genossenschaft Auslandschweizer-Ferienhaus Klosters" was founded in 1944 and in June 1945, the "Hotel Albeina" was opened. The hotel is situated in Klosters-Dorf at an altitude of 3700 ft. It is a chalet which comprises 50 beds and is equipped with modern conveniences.

Anyone wishing to enjoy all the pleasures of an alpine holiday without the hustle and bustle associated with modern holiday resorts, will find that this hotel answers all their needs. It is outside the general traffic area but within easy distance to the well-known sport centres of Klosters-Platz, Davos and Parsenn. The hotel is conducted by a co-operative society and tariffs are quite moderate.
