DAY OF THANKSGIVING
ATONEMENT AND PRAYER

Sunday, 17th September

Copy of a prayer written by the Mother Superior of a Convent, a woman of many responsibilities and interests, and containing much for all of us . . .

Lord, Thou knowest better than I know myself that I am growing older and I will some day be old. Keep me from getting talkative, and particularly from the fatal habit of thinking I must say something on every subject and occasion.

Release me from the craving to try to straighten out everybody's affairs.

Keep my mind free from the recital of endless details, give me wings to get to the point. I ask grace enough to listen to the tales of others' pains, help me to endure them with patience. But seal my lips on my own aches and pains, they are increasing and my love of rehearsing them is becoming sweeter as the years go by.

Teach me the glorious lesson that occasionally it is possible that I might be mistaken.

Keep me reasonably sweet, I do not want to be a Saint, some of them are so hard to live with, but a sour old woman is one of the crowning works of the devil.

Make me thoughtful but not moody, helpful but not bossy.

With my store of wisdom it seems a pity not to use it all, but Thou knowest, Lord, that I want a few friends at the end.
