GREETINGS AND WISHES FROM THE SWISS AMBASSADOR

To all of you, Compatriots and Friends, my wife and I extend our best wishes for 1968.

May the New Year again be marked by the signs of collaboration and solidarity: within the framework of your clubs, in living attachment to the ancestral homeland, as well as in close harmony with your adopted country. The recent participation at the Trade Fair in Wellington has demonstrated what can be achieved through combined efforts.

My wife and I were happy to have been amongst you only a few weeks ago. The Christmas celebration in the Wellington Swiss Club, attended for the first time by a delegate of the New Helvetic Society from home, will undoubtedly remain one of our best memories.

Jointly with the members of our Embassy in Wellington we send you herewith our warmest greetings and wishes for the New Year.

E. v. Graffenried,
Ambassador.
