HEDY'S CORNER . . .

. . . starts 1970 by wishing you that this new year may grant you all you expect of it. At the same time thanks go to all those generous contributors to the 'Corner' who so willingly shared their specialised knowledge with us, and we hope to keep up this policy of asking experts to write short articles.

Laugh a little . . .

"My life gives me nothing", complains a wife.

"Why's that?" asks her husband, "You have me".

"That is just what I mean!" answers the wife

* * *

Eve does not get any younger and Adam feels monogamy a bit irksome. "I still have so many spare ribs", he laments with eyes looking reproachfully heavenward.
