On September 29th the "Stradivarius" Trio, together with a pianist, will give a concert in Hamilton at the Nancy Light Hall, Diocesan School for Girls, at 8 p.m. This group of players are countrymen of ours and are held in great esteem as a chamber music ensemble. The three string players, Harry Goldenberg, Hermann Friedrich and Jean Paul Gueneux are soloist members of the Zurich Radio Orchestra when not on international tours. The pianist, Werner Giger, has given many concerts in important European cities and plays regularly with the "Stradivarius" Trio.

The Federation of Chamber Music Societies is running this concert and the tour is one of a series of subscription concerts. You will not find an advertisement in any Waikato newspaper.
