OUR GROUP - TRAVELS

Our "Helvetia" provides the only link between our compatriots, reports the happenings in our clubs and is at the disposal of our Embassy for any news they may wish to communicate.

The subscriptions of our 400-odd readers do not cover the printing and distribution costs and we must lean heavily on our Airline Advertisers and they in turn expect some results for their outlay and this is only possible by keeping our group-travels going.

A considerable number of our Swiss do travel privately and no doubt are considering our advertised airlines. It is important to us that these travellers inform their Travel Agency that their booking was due to the advertisement in our "Helvetia".

However, group-travels make our advertisers happy and we would recommend our intending travellers to join a group if at all possible, to help themselves with the considerable reductions and at the same time help to keep the advertisers for our "Helvetia" newsletter, who provide with any surplus the only income of the Swiss Society of New Zealand.
