☆ Taranaki Swiss Club

Obituary: Alfons Kalin

Mr Alfons Kalin passed away at Hawera on 11th May at the age of 72 years. Born in Einsiedeln, Kt. Schwyz, Switzerland, on 27th December, 1900, he came to New Zealand in 1920, and married Albertina (Jean) Dietschin in 1929. He farmed at Normanby for 21 years, after which he bought his own farm at Manaia before retiring to Hawera in 1963.

Mr and Mrs Kalin made several trips to Tacoma, U.S.A., to visit Alfons' brother, Ebert, and sister Mrs Bertha Stump. They also visited Switzerland in 1949, 1960, 1967 and 1970. In America Mr Kalin was known as "The Jolly Einsiedelner" with two walking sticks, which he had used for the last 25 years.

He was a very prominent man and attended all the Swiss functions in Taranaki. A keen card player and unlimited conversationalist, he mixed with the old and young alike and was fondly referred to as "Old Alf".

Charity from the husband?

Who is "minister of finance" in the Swiss home? Who manages the household budget? Is the wife still dependent on her husband's charity, or has she now progressed to equal financial partnership?

The 'Market Research Institute' in Lucerne issued a questionnaire which shows the following results: 29% of couples have a joint account. One quarter of the wives receive a stable sum of household money. 31% of the housewives administer the entire income. The husband has his quota of pocket money. These answers were evident from 607 completed questionnaire forms; four representative-and-typical completed questionnaires were published and quoted in news media.—

Mrs Meyer-Andre (66), housewife, Biel:

"My husband (70) still works. I do the household and am in charge of our cash earnings. I first attend to the firm's commitments and the remainder is used for routine shopping and irregular oddments. My husband cannot be bothered to manage our finances himself and prefers to have pocket money. In our 42 years of marriage we are well satisfied with our arrangement and would do it again a second time."

Mr Enrico Franzoni (52), president of the Swiss National Council, Muralto, Ticinese:

"I am the sole breadwinner. My wife (34) receives a definite amount of money each month. It is for all household and all of her personal expenses. Formerly she had no allowance at all and needed to ask me for every trifle. This is now a thing of the past, except when we are on vacation when I pay our total expenses."
