NEWS FROM THE EMBASSY

THE EMBASSY OF SWITZERLAND in Wellington, wishes to remind all the Swiss citizens living in New Zealand, of the opportunity for them to join the Old Age and Survivors' Insurance Scheme — Disability Insurance Scheme. The age limit at which the Swiss living abroad can join the scheme is now 50 years.

Provided they were born after 30th November, 1908 (men), or after 30th November, 1911 (women), the Swiss living abroad who are over 50 years, but who are not yet members of the voluntary scheme, have the possibility, until 31st December, 1973, to join; after that date, there will be absolutely no chance to do so.

The scheme can be of special interest for the Swiss who intend to go back to work or to retire in Switzerland.

The Embassy is at your disposal for all the information you may need in connection with the scheme. Or write to the Swiss Consular Agency, P.O. Box 49-019, Auckland.
