WELLINGTON

Chinese Evening: Due to the election being held on the same evening, there were only thirty-five members and friends participating to enjoy a very tasty and a well prepared six course Chinese buffet meal, catered for by Mr John Young and his wife. I believe it was in a cosy and relaxing atmosphere. Thanks to Mani Zust for lending us his TV set for those who were interested to follow the election.

Working Bee: On Sunday, November 11, 1990, we had our Working Bee. Unfortunately, only seven helpers turned up. They cleaned the windows, walls, ceiling and defrosted the fridge. Our special thanks to Ruth Messmer for sewing the curtains for the club room. So, at our next function you will be able to enjoy it in the new and fresh atmosphere.

Coming Events:

February 23/24: Cowbell Competition.
March 16: Swiss Society Steinstossen and Kegeln Competitions.
April 13: Annual General Meeting.

OBITUARY

MOLLY CHAMBERLAIN who passed away on November 4 was the wife of Len who was President of the Taranaki Swiss Club for seventeen years.

Working for charity was one of her great gifts in life. She assisted on the piano at our Swiss Socials for over thirty years, also played the accordion in her own home district, Kapuni, for the Women's Institute Entertainment Group, Hawera and Eltham Old Folks Association and Eventide Home.

Len and Molly were married for over forty-five years. The marriage was blessed with three daughters who are all married.

To her husband and family we offer our deepest sympathy.
