1. Name

The name of the Society shall be THE SWISS SOCIETY OF NEW ZEALAND (incorporated), hereinafter referred to as the 'Society'.

2. Objects

The objects for which the Society is established are:

- a. To take over the aims, the objects and the assets of the "Swiss Benevolent Society in New Zealand."
- b. To conserve, promote and advance the cultural standards of citizens of Swiss origin within New Zealand.
- c. To provide for the moral and the financial support of Swiss citizens living in New Zealand in urgent and deserving cases, in particular to care or provide for the needy families of living or deceased Swiss citizens, provide a decent burial and resting place for those who die without adequate means, and generally provide financial, moral or social assistance in any case in which the Committee thinks fit, but so that no person considered by the Committee and in the eyes of the Law of New Zealand or Switzerland to be of bad reputation or averse to honest work shall receive any assistance from the Society. Financial support in the term of this paragraph shall only be given in cases where Social Security benefits prove insufficient.

- d. To assist Swiss immigrants to learn the New Zealand way of life.
- e. To support the social and cultural contact among people of Swiss origin.
- f. To encourage the formation of provincial branches and affiliations who would organise their local functions independently of the parent body. A branch elects its own Committee and looks after its own affairs within the Rules of the parent Society. The parent Society would grant assistance upon application from the Branches for needy cases laid down under paragraph 2c. Any member of the provincial Branches must be a member of the Society. The parent body can assist branches with an annual subsidy on the basis of their membership, not exceeding the amount of the surplus income in that particular year. In case of liquidation or a full year non-activity of any branch Club, the Swiss Society as the parent body shall have the authority to take over all liabilities or funds of such Clubs concerned and hold such funds in trust until such time as a similar Club is founded again in that particular district. If no similar Club is founded within a period of twenty (20) years, such funds shall become the property of the Society. All affiliated Clubs are required to alter any present contradictory rules to that accordingly. Each affiliated Club shall be represented with at least one delegate in the General Committee of the Swiss Society.
- g. To publish a regular issue of a bulletin of the Society.
- h. To represent the New Zealand Group of the New Helvetic Society.
- i. To accept any trust or legacies for all or any of the purposes of the Society.

3. Membership

- a. All citizens of Swiss origin in New Zealand of either sex, and their descendants, irrespective of their Nationality, shall be eligible for membership of the Society, except applicants decided by the Committee of the Society to be unworthy of membership.

- b. Persons who are not Swiss citizens or descendants as foreshaid, but who are friendly disposed towards Switzerland, may be admitted to membership by special decision of the Committee, and shall have all rights and be subject to all the liabilities of members, entitled to vote, but not hold office in the Society, nor shall they receive any financial support from the Society.
- c. The Committee may terminate the membership of any member who is twelve months in arrears with payment of any subscription, and in any case where a member has acted to the detriment of the Society or of the Swiss community in New Zealand. Before doing so the Committee shall inform him of its intention by registered letter and shall give him an opportunity to state his case in writing or in person to the Annual General Meeting. A member may resign his membership in writing to the Secretary.
- d. The names of the new members shall be published in the next issue of the bulletin, and a complete list of all members shall be published in the Helvetia every three years.
- e. Honorary Life Membership can be bestowed to persons of special merit to the objects of the Society.

4. Subscriptions

5. Management

- a. The official Swiss Representative in New Zealand shall be Patron and adviser of the Society.

- b. The Committee shall be elected annually at the Annual General Meeting, and shall hold office until the next Annual General Meeting or until their successor is appointed.
- c. If any vacancy shall occur it shall be filled by appointment by the Committee until the next Annual General Meeting.

He shall deposit all funds at the Bank nominated by the Committee, and shall keep proper books of accounts showing all the financial transactions of the Society. He shall also prepare the Annual Accounts and Balance Sheet which shall be available for inspection by members at the Annual General Meeting, and shall be published in the first issue of the bulletin following that meeting. The banking account of the Society shall be operated upon in such a manner as the Committee shall from time to time determine.
- g. The Branch or Club Executive Members may be instructed by the Committee to collect subscriptions and perform any other service the Committee thinks fit.
- h. No member or group of members shall make any public or press statements purporting to be made by or on behalf of the Swiss Society or any section thereof except by or with the prior authority of the President of the Society.
