GUGGEMUSIK EVENING

This year the Guggemusik entered the stage in brand new masks and costumes, all as wild cats, lions, tigers and leopards, conducted by pink panther. As always they were very entertaining, they sort of get you in a party mood. Soon a Polonaise formed joined by young and old. There were plenty of masks around, monkeys, pirates, fairies, Gipsies, golliwogs, people from outer space, es "Bängeli" and many, many more. And oh yes, there was a tall, slim, blond Swiss lady who made us laugh a lot. She looked like a lady but certainly did not behave like one! Most people danced a lot or amused themselves just watching. Thanks to Peter and his Guggemusik for a terrific evening.

FONDUE EVENING

The annual fondue evening was enjoyed by around 80 people. It was held on 5 October and, although a few "regulars" were absent, it was nice to see many new faces. Once again, the fondue was superb, with many compliments going to the committee for their great recipe and great stirring!

The evening began with the fondue, followed by the medal presentation. Congratulations to all medal winners. The Jey Es band then played a medley of songs which everyone could sing to, thanks to the efforts of Josie Stone and Beatrice Leuenberger for the organisation of the song sheets. Six prizes were then raffled, and we thank everyone for their support. Tea and coffee was served, along with those tempting custard squares and home baked biscuits no one can refuse! Thanks to all the people who supported the evening and of course to everyone involved in the organisation.

volleyball court, and club rooms which contain a pool table and table tennis table. We would ask people to bring their sun umbrellas and picnic mats, though there are shaded areas in the complex. Parents of younger children might like to bring a few toys for their children to play with, though entertainment will be provided by way of a magician. The magician assures us that older children and adults will also enjoy his performance!

The club will provide sausages, bread, cordial, tea, coffee, biscuits and ice creams for the children. Please feel free to bring any other food you might like to eat for lunch.

Santa will also be coming. We would ask parents to please bring a small gift for Santa to give to your child. This present is only to cost $5.00 or less.

There will be no charge for this function, so please come along and enjoy the day. There will however be raffles on sale and your support would be greatly appreciated.

PLEASE NOTE:

To help us with the catering, we would ask everyone intending to come to the Christmas Party to contact Beatrice Leuenberger (ph. 07-843 7971) before December 1.

FONDUE EVENING

Our Fondue Evening on the 28th September was well attended: sixty Swiss and fondue-keen New Zealanders came to the Swiss Club. Little did they know of the almost panic the last unexpected guests had caused: a mad rush for additional bread and Denis had to grate an extra kilogram of cheese by hand. Luckily Christine's garlic was ample. Anyway! All went well and there was enough for everybody. Christine Hughes and Peter Fischer again demonstrated their great skills in organising and cooking. The salad tasted as good as it looked attractive, and there weren't many leftovers for Denise's chooks.

The sad part of the evening was that we had to say farewell to Mr and Mrs Thurnheer. They'll retire to Berne at the end of October. We are glad that they are looking forward to the comforts of Switzerland - but we are still sad to lose them. Maya Beddie-Geiser spoke in her usual toastmaster way, and we ended up saying good bye not crying but laughing.

Farewell celebration for Mr. and Mrs. Thurnheer

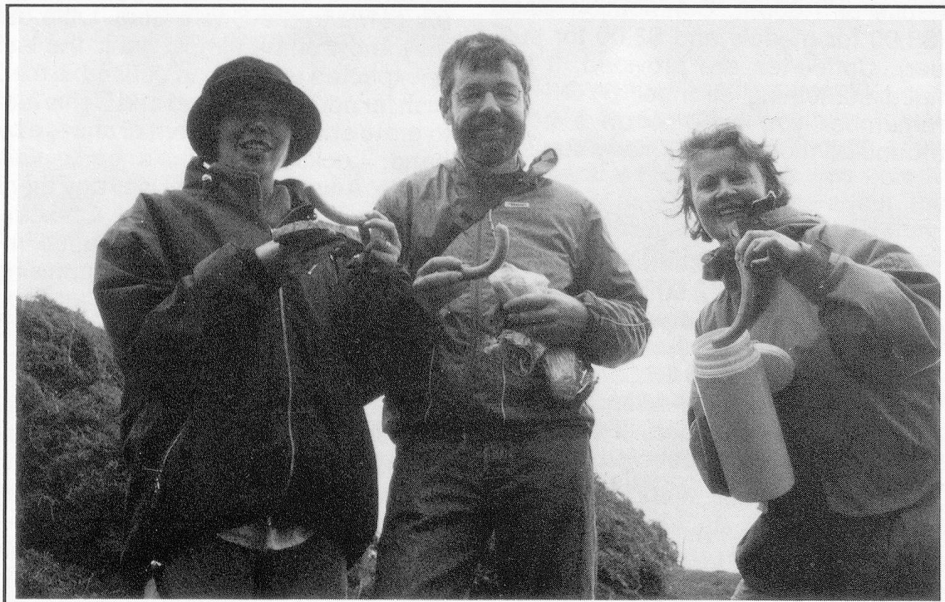

The tombola was a success, although some might have had a bit of a surprise. It was well after midnight when we left the club house, content with the fondue and a very friendly evening.

A big "Hello" from all of us down here! We have been busy with our walks and a few other activities. At the end of August we climbed the hills behind Makara, to the great delight of our small children, as they were all looking forward to see the relics of the bunkers which were built in the 2nd World War. And they were not disappointed. Sadly we had to leave the summit fairly abruptly, as a storm and heavy winds were brewing above our heads - they helped us to sail swiftly back to the beach where a warmer climate prevailed. Later, we enjoyed a "Jass" in the clubhouse.

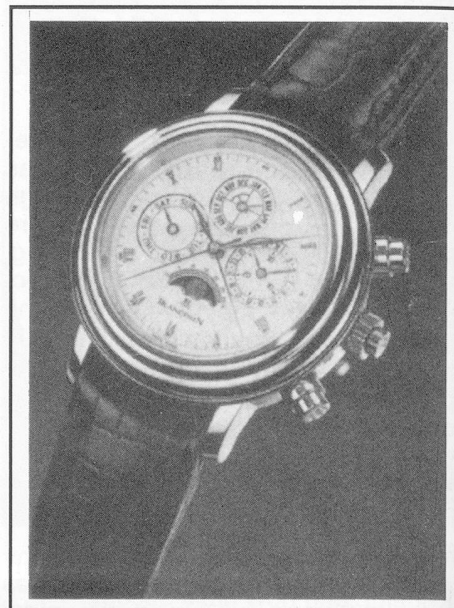

On the 10th September the Garibaldi Club and the Circolo Italiano of Wellington were the hosts for two Ticino writers, Elda Guidinetti and Antonio Rossi. It was an interesting and challenging night. Antonio spoke in a very soft Italian about the immigration and emigration from and to the Tessin. Elda spoke in English about women and family issues. Many questions were capably answered. We thank the Swiss and Italian Embassies for inviting Elda and Antonio to several New Zealand and Australian cities. The sharing of literature and culture is always enriching for the giver and receiver.

A warm sunny September Sunday encouraged us to walk up Wrights Hill in Korori. It was as usual the last Sunday of the month. The highlight of the trip was the hospitality of the Schneider-Köppel family who spoilt us with wonderful cakes and coffee. Why don't you join us on our next trip?

THE WORLD'S MOST COMPLICATED WATCH

The Swiss firm Blancpain has been awarded six stars by the German magazine "Chronos" for its watch called "1735", which has established a world record for complication watches. The 1735 includes all of the six classic complications: ultra-thin movement, calendar with phases of the moon, perpetual calendar, split-second chronograph, tourbillon and minute repeater. The creation of this jewel, a veritable symphony of time, involves two months just to manufacture the parts, and a full year for the assembly by a master watchmaker. The cost of such an instrument, which is being produced in a limited edition with a maximum of 30 watches, is around NZ$900,000 each.
