Upcoming Swiss Cultural Events in New Zealand

(As indicated by the Swiss Embassy - Wellington)

The Swiss Embassy in co-operation with 'Pro Helvetia-Arts Council of Switzerland' is pleased to announce the Photographic Exhibition of 'The Patient Planet/So Many Worlds' for 1999.

Palmerston North	Manawatu Art Gallery	19 June - 1 August 1999
Wellington	Dowse Art Gallery (Lower Hutt)	21 August - 21 November 1999
Auckland	Auckland Art Gallery	11 Dec. 1999 - 23 Jan. 2000

The Patient Planet/So Many Worlds is a remarkable exhibition of photographs which tells the story of the major political and human events of the second half of the twentieth century. Turbulent, yet touching, the 255 images tell individual stories with formidable authenticity, a factor which is frequently overlooked in today's art-directed or manipulated images. Nearly all the renowned names of humanistic photojournalism are represented including Switzerland's Werner Bischof, together with Henri Cartier-Bresson, René Burri, Robert Frank and many others. This is an important exhibition, brought to New Zealand by Pro Helvetia, Arts Council of Switzerland, and should be of great interest to every age group - it is a photographic history of the world that is our's.

- Trudi Miles is the daughter of The Swiss Society Vice-President Bert Flühler and his wife Josy Flühler, a well known music-teacher and musical director of the 'Hamilton Swiss Club -Singchörli'.

Doris and Trudy.

Trudi Miles

Trudi began violin studies at the age of five under the late Hedy Biland, studying the SUZUKI-method.

Later she gained two diplomas while studying with Cecilia Worth in Hamilton before moving to Auckland, where she gained her LRSM and Diploma in Music Performance under David Nalden.

While in Auckland, Trudi was also a member of the Auckland Philharmonic Orchestra. - During the next two and a half years in London, Trudi played with various Chamber groups and went on tour to Italy with the Westminster Philharmonic Orchestra. - On returning to New Zealand in 1990 Trudi gained her LTCL - Teachers diploma and became a member of the Registered Music Teachers of New Zealand.

Over the last five years Trudi has contributed to the musical scene in Hamilton as leader of the Opus Chamber group and is currently leading the Waikato Symphony Orchestra. She has also done some freelancing in Auckland such as Television ads and also backing for various artists (Howard Morrison, Dion Warwick, Shirley Bassey and Ray Charles). Trudi has a private teaching practice in Hamilton of which many of her students have achieved well in both competitions and examinations. Recently Trudi has formed her own string-quartet called 'SIMPLY STRINGS' which plays at many various functions. Trudi is married with three young children. Her husband serves on the committee of the Hamilton Swiss club.
