TARANAKI

On the 16th June we held the Preiskegeln and fondue evening. Teams of four competed for two cervelats during the afternoon, with several keen jassers also taking the opportunity to have a game or two. The lucky or skilled players managed to take home several delicious sausages, but for some of us the sausages proved expensive ... however the fun was worth it!!! From 6.00pm the fondue / sausages and salads were served to a good crowd ... the fondue, once again, was delicious and the cervelats and salads also went down well. Everyone seemed to enjoy their meals and many favourable comments were heard. We were delighted to have Roland and Trudi from Wellington, who combined this social event with taking home all the Swiss Society matters. We really enjoyed your company ... and were grateful that you took all the Society papers etc to give us more room in our offices!!!

The raffles were quickly sold, with several lucky winners taking home nice prizes. A small supper was held before people slowly made their way home.

Many thanks to all the members who assisted in any way to make this popular evening so pleasant ... from food to entertainment ... to just good company. It was good to see so many of you there, and we look forward to your attendance at the remaining functions during the next few months.

On the 8th July the very popular Anniversary Shoot was held. Ninety-seven adults and children enjoyed a meal of sauerkraut which was truly delicious (made, once again, by Joe Kaiser), pork, potatoes, peas and wienerli. Many thanks to all the ladies who helped prepare the meal, which was enjoyed by all. During the afternoon people either shot or skittled with everyone participating winning a prize of cervelats or a bottle of wine ... needless to say the sausages seemed to take priority!!! Many thanks to Lou Butler who, as usual, donated the ammunition for the shooting ... we really appreciate your generous nature, Lou. The spinning wheel raffle was popular, with many people lucky to take home a prize or two or three!!! The Mystery Prize Winners were Regi Mathys (2), Emmi Kiser (2), Lou Butler (2), Charlie Schuler, Tony Hess, Richard Drummond, Bryce Kaiser, Mark Kiser and Anton Scherrer. Mark also handed out the shooting cups and trophies which were won during the year, with results as follows:

Men's Presidents' Challenge Cup
Winner Mark Kiser with Runner-up Othmar Hebler.

Self-handicap Challenge Cup
Winners Lou Butler and Mark Kiser with Runner-up Johnny Bishop.

Erwin Kiser B Grade Cup
Winner Remigi Zimmermann

Fuglistaller C Grade Trophy
Winner Alfred Scherrer

Ladies Ashleigh Lodge Presidents' Cup
Winner Erna Zimmermann with Runner-up Kate Fitzgerald.

Engelberger Memorial Cup (self-handicap)
Winner Erna Zimmermann with Runner-up Kate Fitzgerald.

Lou Nolly Junior Boys Cup
Winner Luke Scherrer

Walter and Myrtha Seifert Junior Girls Trophy
Winner Ann-Marie Scherrer.

Well done to all the winners, and many thanks to all the participants who regularly attend the shooting events. We all wish to thank Mark Kiser very much for his dedication to the shooting section of our club, and for organising the Anniversary Shoot ... you do a wonderful job, Mark, and we really appreciate your efforts!!!

The Anniversary Shoot was held a few days after the tornado hit our province, and when talking to people we realised how lucky we all were that no-one got killed. So many of our members are cleaning up huge amounts of trees which were uprooted or damaged during this storm, or even hay sheds which have blown away leaving iron all over the farms. Good luck to everyone that was affected with your cleaning up ... let's say there will be heaps of firewood around!!!

Forthcoming Events

July 28 We are celebrating the Swiss National Day with plenty of Swiss culture and traditions for everyone to enjoy. The 1st August badges will be for sale, as will be the new fridge magnets which Leo and Doreen Zehnder and Ruedi and Lisette Benker have donated. The very popular tombola tickets will also be for sale. Please remember that, for catering purposes, we are selling tickets, so don't just turn up!!! All members will be contacted, but if for some reason you are not rung, please contact a committee member who will help you. Tickets are only $15 for adults.

September

As always this month is very quiet within the Swiss Club, as our farmers are very busy!!!

October 4 & 18

Keglen recommences ... this group have heaps of fun, and would love to see you there to join them. Our keglen master is Johnny Bishop, so if you would like to know more, please give him a ring. The evening commences at 8.00pm.

October 21

The smallbore rifle section will be holding the Trudi Ott Belt Shoot and Championship Shoot from 1.00pm. Please support Mark Kiser, who is the smallbore rifle master, and if you would like to know a little more contact him.

Card Evenings

Having barely commenced, it seems to most, our six card evenings for 2007 already came to an end in early July. Although still reasonably well attended, with many people away and for various other reasons, numbers were down for the final three evenings compared to other years. However, 22 card players came along to all of the six evenings, with a further seven missing only once, so that a total of 29 people were eligible for the overall trophy and prizes.

Our fourth card evening took place in Matamata on 8th June attended by 34 players. This was followed by the fifth evening in Cambridge on 22nd June with 38 players, and then the final evening in Matamata on 6th July, attended by 32. As usual, at each card evening we were treated to delicious suppers - this time including sausages and open sandwiches (both accompanied with home made bread or Zopf); and a variety of pastry savouries. Most sausages and meats this year were sourced from the Swiss Deli in Auckland, and their superb quality was enjoyed by all. Each supper was followed by a selection of baking and coffee. Again, we would like to thank everyone who helped with preparing, baking and catering the suppers, and others who came along to help out in the kitchen. It is undoubtedly true that a number of people are attracted to our card evenings as much for the half-time suppers as for the card playing.

Once again, we also had a great selection of prizes this year. Along with the eight provided by the Club, we also received a number of extra donated prizes, which is why, as can be seen below, we have such a large number of prize winners. Many thanks to everyone who brought along these extra items.

Competition for the overall section was fierce this year, with scores so close that it came down to the last evening to eventually reveal the 'Jass-Champion' and other prizewinners - in the end, only 425 points separated the first ten places. But with a high score on the final evening, Oskar Reichmuth came up from previously being in the eighth place to win the Overall competition for 2007 and was presented with the Club's 'Jass-Trophy' and a ham for his efforts. Our congratulations go to Oskar, as well as the nine further players who were able to choose from a selection of meat prizes for their overall results.

As well, we would like to thank all card players, whether you came only once or on all six evenings, for your attendance, and helping to make our card evenings the success they have been for many years now.

Language War

The Nationalrat has approved a new language law that forces schools to teach a second national language before English. The Conference of Cantonal Education Directors has already criticised parliament's decision, saying it goes against an agreement that allows cantons to decide how languages are taught.

The final vote in the Nationalrat saw 87 members approve the legislation and 68 oppose it. The rightwing People's Party had demanded unsuccessfully that no debate take place, citing fears that the cantons would lose some of their sovereignty in educational matters if the law were accepted, or that it would increase government spending.

The centre-left Social Democrats said a second national language should have priority over English, but they were also backed by some members of the People's Party who said that it was important for national cohesion. A Centre-right Christian Democrat warned it was necessary "to stop the invasion of English". A Social Democrat said it was time to send a clear signal to the cantons before they cut a second national language out of the school curriculum. It was pointed out that Zürich and most cantons in eastern Switzerland had already introduced English instead of French in second and third years in primary schools and that it was not possible to go back to the old system where French had priority.

The cantonal education ministers complained after the parliament vote that the decision threatened the compromise they had put together and approved, which stated that the cantons could decide alone which was the second language, either English or a national one, to be taught in their schools. In their statement they said that years of talks had shown that no consensus could be reached between the country's different regions, and that leaving the decision in the hands of each canton was not just the best strategy, but also the only one.

The Ständerat will now have to approve the legislation before it can be implemented.
