Swiss Market Day 2018

What a day it was! The weather gods were on our side again for another amazing Swiss Market Day on 5th May. Hundreds of people streamed through our doors to enjoy the amazing food, arts and crafts and imported Swiss products that may only be available once a year. Taranaki arrived with a bus load of very excited visitors as well as musicians and others arrived from all over New Zealand to be enjoying the atmosphere of our special Swiss Festival.

There were 52 stalls in total inside and out, the Swiss Club fried 1100 sausages in total and Herbert, my 2IC sold almost a pallet of imaginary Rivella as it literally missed the boat. To get your Swiss Fix there was Victorinox, Ragusa, Fondue, Zuepfe, Wernli, Linzertortli, Munz, Aromat, Roeschti, Ricola, a whole variety of Swiss Chocolates, Swiss cheese and sausages just to name a few.

The fluffy St. Bernard and Bernese Mountain dogs were as always very cute. The Yodling club and Alphorn players as well as the Guggemusik and all other musicians deserve a special mention as their sounds really send you on an imaginary trip to the Swiss Alps.

It's wonderful to see so many hugs, smiles and happy people the whole day as it really does bring people together and makes me proud of the Swiss community we have here on the other side of where our 'Heimat' is.

It takes months to organise a big event like this and I would like to thank each and everyone of you for helping, supporting and visiting our Swiss Market Day – I'm still buzzing... Tanja Latham-Zurbrugg
