YERBA BUENA CENTER FOR THE ARTS

PROUDLY PRESENTING LIMITED EDITIONS AND UNIQUE ARTWORKS BY CONTEMPORARY ARTISTS

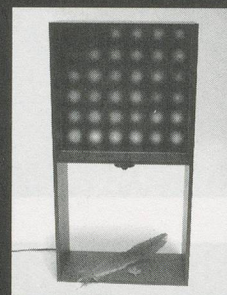

BARRY MCGEE

This original and very rare multi-panel artwork provides a unique opportunity to collect large-scale paintings donated by McGee from his first commissioned public art project—the opening of YBCA in 1992. Six paintings on wood, each 4 x 8 feet, feature the artist's stylized urban caricatures in graffiti style drip black and white spray paint on china red background. Available individually or as a set.

JIM CAMPBELL AND ALAN RATH

Unfinished is a unique interactive multi-media sculpture hand-made collaboratively by the artists. Each edition includes a black aluminum shadow box housing a square screen with a grid of 36 colored lights and a small video camera that zooms in and out in 4-minute cycles to create a range of abstract impressions of any object that the collector places in the box.

TODD HIDO

Using archival pigment transfer dye process printed on German water-color paper, Hido's signature image of a contemporary house is saturated in color capturing the light eerily seeping out through the windows and the anonymity, isolation and surreal beauty of suburbia. Richly detailed and hauntingly beautiful, the image is at once inviting and foreboding.

LIMITED EDITIONS AND ART

As a non-profit contemporary art center, YBCA features visual art, performance, film/video and education programs that support and explore experimental work from local, national and international artists. All Limited Edition sales support YBCA's art and education programs.

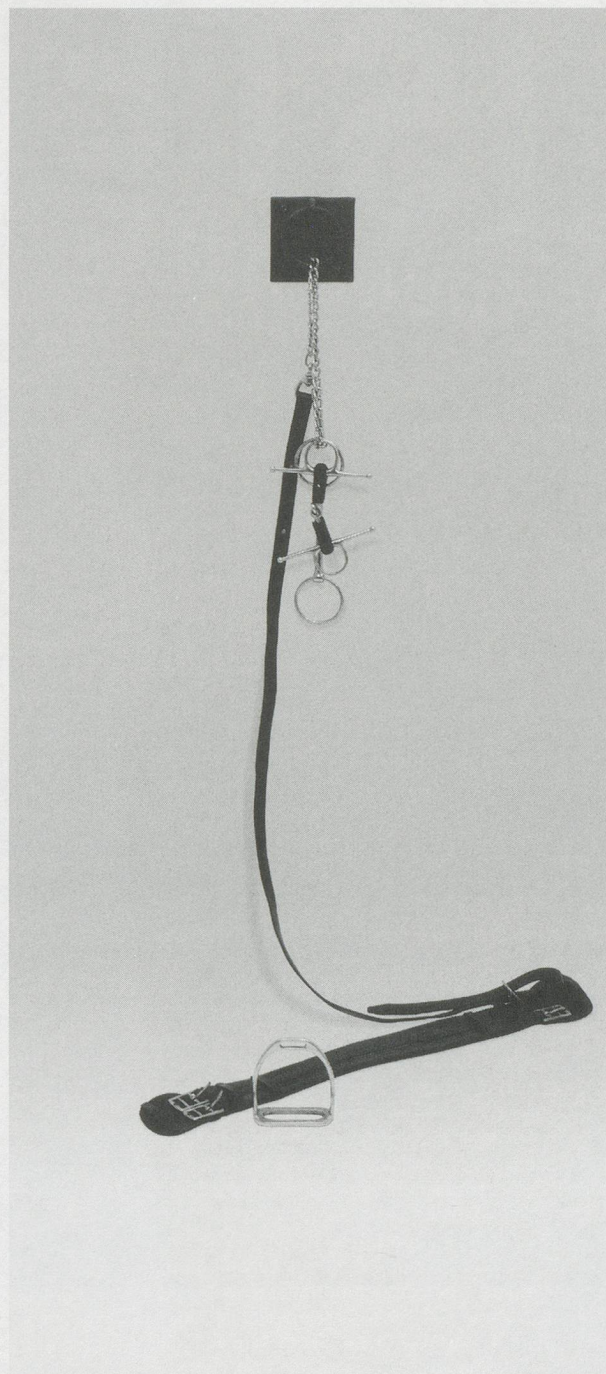

For more information or to purchase your limited edition, contact Maureen Sullivan 917.846.4477 or editions@YBCA.org

Kaikai Kiki Co., Ltd. Presents:

GEISAI

An art fair with a twist

What is GEISAI?

This one-of-a-kind art fair, organized by Kaikai Kiki, Takashi Murakami's studio, is a grand-scale attempt to kick-start the Japanese art market. By providing artists with an opportunity to exhibit and sell their artwork, GEISAI plays an entrepreneurial role in Japan's still-emerging market. It has become a gateway to the art world for many young artists, drawing hundreds of talented participants each year to Tokyo to show off their creations.

Special Thanks to: GEISAI #9 Judges (François Pinault, Tadao Ando, Masamichi Katsuyama, Yoko Morimoto, Makoto Aida, Galerie Emmanuel Perrotin, GALLERY NARUYAMA, hiromi yoshii, YAMAMOTO GENDAI, BUILDING, yukari-art inc., Roppongi Hills ART-DESIGN STORE, Shingata, ART IT, BT/Bijutsu Techo, Illustration, Casa BRUTUS, amari, EYESCREAM, Akio Goto, Chie Morimoto, B Gallery, Michiniko Yamai) and all the participants.
