Acknowledgements

The essays in this volume have their origin in the conference of the Swiss Association of University Teachers of English (SAUTE) which was held at the University of Neuchâtel on 28-29 April 2017. We would like to thank those who contributed to make the organisation of this conference a success, especially Jennifer Rains, Pauline Bachofner, and Gregory Lucena Scarpella. We are grateful to the following institutions for financial support of the conference: The Swiss Academy of Humanities and Social Sciences (SAGW), the Conférence Universitaire de Suisse Occidentale (CUSO), and the Faculty of Letters and Human Sciences at the University of Neuchâtel (FLSH). The many anonymous readers are to be thanked for the time and attention they put into the essays and the authors for the care with which they responded. Our thanks to Lukas Erne for his rapid and lucid responses to our questions and to Martin Heusser for his patience and skill in the production of the cover design. We thank Jennifer Rains for her careful preparation of the manuscripts and the index. Thanks are above all due to Keith Hewlett who saw through the production of the volume from start to finish with exemplary courtesy and efficiency. The topic of change has an unexpected local pertinence for SAUTE as this is the last SPELL volume that Keith will oversee. We would like to echo the general editor's expression of gratitude for the outstanding work that Keith has done over the years.
