VIOLETTE BROWNE.

Owing to the general strike, the Song Recital of Miss Violette Browne was postponed from May 17th, and will take place next Friday evening, July 9th. As mentioned in The Swiss Observer of 8th May, Miss Violette Browne is a daughter of Mr. A. Brauen, and is a young vocalist possessing the happy combination of a beautiful and supple voice with a charming and vivacious personality.

The programme is most intriguing, and we predict a very successful evening.

Further particulars of the Recital will be found in the advertisement columns of this number.

PERSONAL.

In conjunction with two of his colleagues, Mr. Henry Senn has taken over the firm of C. Hoffmann & Co., of 11, Hart Street, Mark Lane, E.C., the business of Ship and Insurance Brokers which for the last 40 years has been carried on by the late Mr. William Rappard. We are sure we voice the sentiments of his large circle of friends in our Colony in wishing Mr. Senn every success and in expressing our satisfaction that he should have the opportunity of following in the wake of such a distinguished compatriot as the late Mr. William Rappard.

Mr. E. Burge has acquired the Angel Hotel in Staines, which is one of the oldest and most historic hostleries in that part of the country, priding itself upon its associations with the "Windsor Coaches" and Charles Dickens—in fact, privileged visitors may repose on a bench the comfort of which is reputed to have inspired the famous writer with some of his stories. As regards Mr. Burge, he is, of course, well known in the colony, especially to the members of the City Swiss Club in connection with the Kingston meetings.

To the Editor of The Swiss Observer.
Re ADULA ALPINE HUT.

Sir,—With reference to what appeared in the S.O. last year about the Adula Mountain chain (Piz Walrhain) and its beautiful hut, built by the S.A.C. Sezione Ticinese, intending visitors to Switzerland will be pleased to note that photographs and other views of this picturesque district will be on view in the show windows of the Swiss Federal Railways, 11b, Regent Street, S.W.1, from Monday next for a limited time.

I may repeat that the panorama and views enjoyed from this particular cabane are simply splendid. The newly-constructed hut is considered the best of its kind in the Swiss Alps and offers sleeping accommodation to 35 tourists, an English-speaking caretaker being always in attendance. It can be reached from Olivone at the foot of the Greina Pass and the Lukmanier in the Val Blenio, or from Dangio via Val Soja, also in the Blenio. Olivone, a large village on an extensive plain, offers itself as an admirable base for a series of romantic excursions. Yours truly, G. Cusi.

* Der Berner Verein für Verbreitung guter Schriften bringt in seiner Nr. 141 (Juni 1926) die gemüt- und humorvolle Erzählung "Mozart auf der Reise nach Prag" von Eduard Mörike, die uns einen tiefen Einblick in das innere und äussere Leben des lebenswürdigen Tondichters tun lässt.

Ein Reiseerlebnis, das zuerst grossen Verdross bereitet, wird zur Quelle der höchsten Freude. Der zerstreute Tondichter pflichtet, ganz in Gedanken an ein Jugenderlebnis versunken, im Parke des Grafen Schinzberg eine Pomeranze. Der Gärtner meldet den vermeintlichen Diebstahl seiner Herrschaft, die von der zufälligen Gegenwart des berühmten Musikers hochbeglückt ist und ihm mit seiner Gattin in das Schloss einladet, wo gerade die Nichte des Grafen, eine begeisterte Mozartverehrerin, ihre Verlobung feiert. Die Gesellschaft verlebt mit dem unterhaltenden Musiker und seiner lebenswürdigen Gattin einen herrlichen Tag. Am andern Morgen schenkt ihm der Graf einen bequemen Reisewagen. Aber die heitere Erzählung schliesst mit einer wehmütigen Ahnung von dem frühen Tode des Meisters, verursacht durch seine aufreibende Lebensweise, von der seine Gattin ein anschauliches Bild gibt.

Möchte dieses Meisterwerk den Dichter und den Komponisten unsern Lesern menschlich näher bringen!
