SCHWEIZERBUND. SWISS CLUB.

The General Meeting of the "Schweizerbund" was held at 74, Charlotte Street, W.1, on Monday, Jan. 31st, at 9 p.m., and was well attended.

The Balance Sheet presented was extensively discussed by the Members and accepted with satisfaction.

The President, M. Jules Tresch, thanked the retiring Committee for their services, expressing special thanks to Mr. F. Bernhard, as father of the Committee. He appealed to the Members to elect a Committee which had the welfare of the Society at heart.

The Meeting decided to make further investments of the Reserve Fund. The election of the Committee proceeded swiftly, no change being made in those responsible for the management of the Club. Great satisfaction was expressed by various Members at the able leadership of the President, M. Jules Tresch, who closed the Meeting at 12.30 a.m. E.F.

BÜCHERBESPRECHUNGEN.

Dominik Müller, Basler Historien und Histörchen. —Basel. Verlag Benno Schwabe & Co. Fr. 2.50.

Dominik Müller, der Basler Dichter hat es unternommen die Geschichte der alten Rheinstadt in Mundart zu zeichnen. Diese Gedichte basieren auf Tatsachen, wie das einige Bemerkungen am Ende des Bändchens beweisen. Unser Eindruck geht dahin, dass diese Gedichte zum Teil sehr ansprechend und witzig sind. Zudem ist das Colorit der Zeit gewahrt. Denjenigen Baslern, die ihre Geschichte kennen und lieben wird dieses Bändchen lieb sein und andere wird es vielleicht veranlassen sie zu erforschen.

POTTED WISDOM.

Keep a stiff upper lip in the race of life. The man who gets down in the mouth will soon be down underfoot.

The man who never loses his temper doesn't get the advantage of that humble and contrite feeling that always follows making a fool of yourself.

"OUR YOUTH."

This is an illustrated Monthly for young men and women published in Berne; it gives the reader an opportunity of increasing and developing his or her knowledge of languages. Each number contains 24 pages, the first part being reserved for a serial story (Daniel Defoe's Robinson Crusoe) which is given in English, French, German and Italian. In the second part contributions are published from young collaborators in any of the four languages; students and schoolboys are invited to express their opinions and record particular experiences, and as an encouragement are offered by the Editor five centimes per printed line. A few pages of wit and humour and comments on literature for young people complete this very interesting journal which we think will appeal—and is an admirable help—to the youngsters in our colony most of whom are brought up on English and one of our national languages. Subscriptions (Frs. 5 p. a., post free) should be addressed to Dr. H. Graf, 4, Südbahnhofstrasse, Bern, or the equivalent (4s.) may be remitted to the offices of the Swiss Observer.
