Was für Biel gilt, gilt auch für Basel. Es schadet nichts, wenn wir uns merken, dass wir am 1. Mai 1907 5252 Knaben-Primarschüler zählten und am 1. Mai 1927 bloss noch 2929. Die Zahl der Primarschüler ist also in diesen zwanzig Jahren um 44 Prozent zurückgegangen, trotz Zunahme der Bevölkerung. Hiess das Problem früher: Wie verschafft man den Schülern die nötigen Schulen, so heisst es heute: Wie verschafft man den Schülern die nötigen Schüler! Das klingt wie ein Scherz, doch hinter diesem Scherz steht der Ausserbeiwille einer Rasse, die ihrer Qualität nach wahrhaftig das schönste Recht auf Leben und Fruchtbarkeit hätte!

SWISS CHORAL SOCIETY.

To judge by the attendance and by the merry spirit which was noticeable during the whole evening, it was a happy thought of the Swiss Choral Society to substitute its customary "Gemütliche Abend," to which only members of the stronger sex had access, by a Social Evening and Dance, which was held on Wednesday, the 21st inst., at the Union Helvetia Club.

The object of the choir, which always endeavours to show to the best of its ability its gratitude and appreciation for the support it gets from Contributing Members and Friends in arranging this Social Evening and Dance, was to bring the Active Members into touch with as many of the Contributing Members and Friends of the Society as possible, in the hope that a closer contact between these inner and outer circles would help the Society not only to maintain its progress, but to bring it to a position worthy of a music-loving nation and of the large Swiss Colony in London.

Over 150 members and friends accepted the invitation of the Swiss Choral Society. This first Social was a success in every respect and the wish expressed by everybody that another similar gathering may soon be arranged is ample proof of this.

The few songs which the Choir rendered were heartily appreciated, and the Cambrian Syncopated Orchestra, which provided the excellent dance music, did not give the dancers much rest.

We hope that the next Social Evening and Dance of the Swiss Choral Society may prove a similar, if not bigger, success.

SWISS GYMNASTIC SOCIETY.

The first display after the Society's return from the Federal Gymnastic Festival will take place on Sunday, December 9th, 1928, at 3.45 p.m., at the Union Helvetia Club, 1, Gerrard Place, Shaftesbury Avenue, W.1. The special feature of this display is the first appearance in public of the Ladies Section in Drill exercises and Indian Club Swinging. The programme further includes work at Horizontal Bar, Parallel Bars, Horse, Wand D Drill, Pyramids, Ballet Dancing by little Miss Swan (a member of the Ladies Section) and the customary songs. In the evening a Dance, as usual, will conclude the proceedings. It is confidently hoped that the Swiss Colony in London will support the Gymnasts in large numbers to carry on this Swiss national sport in London.

MISS VIOLETTE BROWNE'S RECITAL.

We see with pleasure that VIOLETTE BROWNE is shortly giving another recital (see announcement). On each previous occasion we felt invigorated and refreshed, for, to quote some of our contemporaries—"this artist has a charming personality"—"makes skilful use of a good voice"—"communicates happiness to her audience."

The programme, in German, Spanish, Italian, French and English, ranges from Bach to van Dieren, from Donizetti to Roussel. Miss Browne will also sing an unpublished work by Arnold Bax, with the composer himself at the piano.
