FEDERAL.

LEAGUE OF NATIONS DELEGATION.

The Federal Council has designated the following Gentlemen to represent the Swiss Confederation at the next session of the League of Nations: M. G. Motta, President of the Swiss Confederation, Professors Max Huber and W. Rappard, Nat. Councillor Dollfus, and State Councillor Baumann and Director W. Stucki. State Councillor Keller (Aarau) has asked to be exempt from nomination.

THE NEW HEAD OF THE INTERNATIONAL LABOUR OFFICE AT GENEVA.

As successor to Albert Thomas, the late Director of the International Labour Office, M. H. B. Butler, has been elected.

The new head of this important Institution was born in 1885 at Oxford, where he graduated at the University. M. Butler was for many years a high official at the home office, and was one of the delegates at the Paris Peace Conference; at the Washington Labour Conference he acted as General Secretary.

GERMAN FOREIGN SECRETARY AT THE FEDERAL PALAIS.

M. v. Neurath, the German Foreign Minister has paid a visit to M. G. Motta, President of the Swiss Confederation at Berne. In the evening a dinner took place at the German Embassy to which the members of the Federal Council were invited.

SWISS BANKERS AT WARSCHAU.

BANK FOR INTERNATIONAL SETTLEMENTS.

The statement of the Bank for International Settlements as at 30th June shows total resources of Frs. (Swiss) 1,109,927,528. The cash item is Frs. 17,932,908, or 1.6 per cent. of the statement total. On the liabilities side long-term deposits amount to Frs. 299,301,446, or 27 per cent., and short-term and sight deposits to Frs. 606,635,616, or 54.6 per cent.

SWITZERLAND AND GERMAN EXCHANGE CONTROL.

Severe restrictions placed by Switzerland on German imports have led to a marked relaxation in favour of Switzerland of the German foreign exchange control. Anybody may now send or take from Germany foreign exchange up to 700m. a month to Switzerland. The same figure holds good for Austria. Two hundred marks is the most that may be sent or taken without special authorization to any other country.

Switzerland had recently forbidden the import of German coal and coke. The German concession in regard to foreign exchange immediately followed, and the Swiss import ban on German coal and coke has now been raised. These German imports, with sugar and malt, will now be admitted up to last year's monthly quantity.

C. F. BALLY A.G. (HOLDING) SCHOENENWERD.

The directors of this concern have passed the accounts for 1931-1932. The net profit amounts to 306,293.08 frs. against 2,864,960.54 frs. the previous year. The directors propose not to pay any dividend (last year 6%) but to carry forward the profit to new account.

The following Gentlemen were newly elected on the board of this concern: Th. Wolfensberger, General Manager of the Federal Bank (Eidgenössische Bank), who will preside over the board. Messrs. Dr. H. E. Gruner, M. Müller-Koller and E. Payot.

SWISS WATCHES.

The Swiss watch industry, 95 per cent. of whose total production used to be exported, has suffered a terrible setback as a result of the world financial crisis.

In 1929, 20,758,000 watches and watch movements, valued at £12,293,650, were exported, whereas according to the latest statistics exports for 1931 fell to 11,534,000 watches, with a total of £5,745,680.

POWERFUL SWISS LOCOMOTIVES.

The two most powerful railway engines in the world have just been put into service on the St. Gothard Railway, which connects Central Switzerland with Italy.

They are electrically driven and have been designed to give tremendous power because of the severity of the gradients which have to be negotiated.

The larger of the two locomotives develops 8800 horsepower. It weighs 244 tons. Its brakes are so powerful that it can be brought to a dead stop from a speed of 40 miles an hour within a few seconds. It is driven by 16 of the latest type electric motors.

Up to now the world's most powerful locomotive was an American goods engine which developed 7125 horsepower.

SWISS STUDENTS AT PORT SUNLIGHT.

A party of 150 members of the Swiss Mercantile Students Association travelled by special train from London to Port Sunlight, for the purpose of inspecting the Works and Offices of Messrs. Lever Bros. Ltd., and witnessing the manufacturing processes of the various products made at Port Sunlight. After a tour of the works and the village, the visitors were entertained to tea in the Hulme Hall, Port Sunlight.

FOOTBALL.

At last, on July 3rd, in Bern, the Swiss Championship 1931/32 came to an end, and a sensational end at that.

The First League Champions also secured the Championship of all Switzerland, defeating F.C. Zurich in the replay in Bern:

Lausanne-Sports 5 Zurich 2

Zurich failed to turn their many scoring chances to account, whereas Lausanne took theirs with promptitude and when Zurich "smartly" placed the ball twice past their own goalkeeper, the Championship was lost and won. "For this relief much thanks" I had a dreadful nightmare of another draw, and another, and another!

Before we retire for a few weeks peace and quiet the final tables must be given:—

Cup Winners 1932 Grasshoppers.
Champions 1932 Lausanne-Sports.
