LIEBES KOMMANDO.

The Academy Cinema, to which the foreign colonies living in London owe such a big debt of gratitude for the many delightful French and German films shown there, is now exhibiting a charming Austrian romantic comedy with the above title. It is based on a pre-war episode of Austrian army life that really happened. The young daughter of a famous family of high military distinction down the centuries is so disgusted with her brother's preference for music to an army career, that she takes it on herself to maintain the family tradition.

Under her brother's name, she joins the military academy, where her zeal and sportiveness make up for her slight effminacy. For nearly three years she manages to keep up the deception, when the old enemy — love — begins to spoil the game. She falls desperately in love with the Adonis amongst her superiors, who himself begins to feel most alarmingly attracted by the rascally pretty young fellow officer. Fortunately, at the critical moment her father discovers the whereabouts of his daughter, and the story ends in the happiest possible solution. The acting is done most beautifully throughout, and in particular by the heroine, Dolly Haas. The filming is done with taste, unpretentious, but charming.

TIR FEDERAL 1934.

EIDGENÖSSISCHES SCHÜTZENFEST 1934.

Every five years the riflemen throughout Switzerland are summoned to a great display in order, in the first instance, to give proof of their efficiency in what is considered our premier national sport — rifle shooting. It is also a patriotic manifestation of men hailing from all and every part of Switzerland, ready to defend the sacred heritage so heroically acquired and sustained by our ancestors.

The committee of the "Tir Fédéral" has extended a hearty invitation to the Swiss residing abroad, who will be specially entertained during the festivities at Fribourg. A small band of riflemen have grouped themselves together, and will represent the London Colony at this great exhibition of national unity.

It is an old custom in our country to collect prizes and donations in order to reward the riflemen for their efforts and personal sacrifice. For this purpose in every canton local committees have been constituted, where gifts in kind and money may be deposited. As the London Colony will wish to contribute to the success of this festival by adequately furnishing the "Gäbentempel," we are appealing to the generosity and patriotism of our readers. M. C. R. Paravicini, the Swiss Minister, has kindly identified himself with this appeal, which, we are sure, will find a hearty response. Any donations — even the smallest — will be considered as a token of loyalty to our country — may be sent to the Swiss Legation, 18, Montagu Place, W.1., or the "Swiss Observer," 23, Leonard Street, E.C.2, and will be acknowledged in our columns.
