INVITATION
to the
FÊTE SUISSE 1938

We are again sending out these invitations in the hope that every Swiss living in London and the home counties may be with us at Central Hall at our annual Fête. This is the most memorable gathering in our social activity during the year; the attendance at this Fête has grown from record to record.

The programme will be finer than ever, since on this occasion we shall hear some famous Swiss artists who are coming across specially for the evening. The Orchestra and the choirs have worked hard to please you, and then there will also be the famous "Würschtli-crush."

We rely on your presence, and you may depend on our keen desire and effort to entertain you suitably.

The Committee.

M. le Ministre PARAVICINI, Honorary President.
