FROM OUR LETTER BOX.

G. M. — Our mistake. Your remittance of November 4th was erroneously credited to a namesake; it will expire with our issue No. 1022.

N. A. — Thanks for the cutting which we do not care to reproduce having no time nor inclination to assume the role of a carpet knight. As under present conditions our "News at Random" are gleaned from a variety of sources it is quite possible that some items are repeated in a subsequent issue in an amplified or even different form.

We continue to receive expressions of appreciation of which the following are a few specimens:

8th February, 1943.

To the Editor of the Swiss Observer.

Dear Sir,

Enclosed please find cash for £5.0.0 as subscription and contribution towards your expenses, which no doubt are very heavy, and hope to be a little helpful that way. Although you may not hear much from me or from our small colony in Birmingham, I do appreciate your efforts in publishing the Swiss Observer with such success. Let us hope that things may improve and that hostilities may cease this year. I have now four sons in the Forces (two abroad) and am looking forward to seeing them all back home soon for good.

With all the best wishes for 1943,

I am, yours truly,

E. BRUNNER.

1st March, 1943.

To the Editor of the Swiss Observer.

Dear Sir,

Not being sure of the terms of my subscription, when due for renewal, I send herewith a cheque for £2.0.0 for renewal, and the balance as a token of my admiration for the way in which you are "holding the fort" in these difficult war conditions.

Yours faithfully,

J. J. EBERLI.

12th March, 1943.

To the Editor of the Swiss Observer.

Dear Sir,

We think you will be interested to hear of our "Wings for Victory" effort.

Customers to the Myllet Restaurant received a pleasant surprise yesterday when they discovered that Luncheon was provided free by Mr. A. Widmer; but this was not all. The Mayoress of Ealing and Alderman Stowell made entertaining and encouraging speeches, and quite unexpectedly, Miss Jean Batten the celebrated airwoman left her table to win everybody's hearts and some of their money with her charming platform manner. In all, £2,396.5s.0d., was extracted without pain, including £500 from 'Mine Host.'

Yours truly,

A. WIDMER.

However, Who would please all, and himself too,

Attempts what none could ever do
is underlined by the following extracts from an epistle that we found on our desk the other morning:

"Of course, it is an open secret that B. has sold his independence to the Swiss Legation for a mess of pottage. As we discussed several times, some competition would do a lot of good. I have found another who willingly subscribes £100 for a start. In conjunction with other offers the fund will soon be sufficient to give a new Swiss London paper a year's trial free from financial worry. A little shake-up will do the 'Snobs Chronicle' no harm."

which may be a warning of things to come; evidently a few Hamlets have risen in our Colony who feel that "something is rotten in the state of Denmark."

SUBSCRIPTIONS RECEIVED.

CARDINAL HINSLEY'S DEATH.

By the death of Cardinal Hinsley, Switzerland lost a great friend. He visited Switzerland and was much attached to the national shrine "Our Lady of the Hermit" Einsiedeln. A personal friend of the late Bishop of Chur, he had asked from him the loan for the Westminster diocese of Father Lanfranchi for apostolic work amongst Catholics from abroad in London, and the Cardinal willingly released about a year ago our chaplain for sole duty amongst the Swiss Catholics. Father Lanfranchi was amongst the 1,000 or more priests, who, as well as Col. A. Bon and Mr. J. J. Boos, of the Committee of Swiss Catholics were in reserved seats in the Cathedral for Pontifical Requiem on Thursday of this week.

VARIED AND APPETISING

With Maggis Aspic Jelly valuable additions may be made to war-time menus. From meat, fish and vegetable "left-overs" attractive supplementary dishes can be contrived.

INVALID ASPIC

Maggis Aspic Jelly in a small mould, daintily served with two or three small strips of toast will be a welcome change from "beef tea."

FISH ASPIC

Cod or Salmon remaining from the boiled fish can be used, also prawns or shrimps. Fill the mould $\frac{3}{4}$ full and when nearly set put in the flakes of fish and fill up.

MEAT ASPIC

Cooked fresh sausage meat or meat left over from the joints may be used minced. Drop the meat into the jelly before setting and serve with a little watercress or cress.

ASPIC SANDWICHES

Spread the slices of bread with margarine and then with a thin layer of jelly. Add grated cheese, watercress, mustard and cress, meat or fish paste.

JELLIED BEEF SOUP

A rich jellied beef soup may be made instantly with the addition of boiling water. Greatly appreciated by Fire-Watchers.

MISCELLANEOUS ADVERTISEMENTS

ECOLE ST. GEORGES, Clarens, Vaud, while remaining open in Switzerland, has had an English branch since the war started. This branch is at ONSLOW HALL, SHREWSBURY.

The School in Switzerland is owned by a Swiss Company (Ecole St. Georges, S.A.). It is under English management, with an Anglo-Swiss Staff; and it provides a general education, with special attention to English and French, for an international group of pupils.

The English Branch, though obliged to be financially separate, carries on the work and traditions of the parent school; but only for certain ages:—

In the Junior School, a limited number of children aged 8 to 12 years old are given a good grounding in general education, with special attention to French, in healthful and homelike country surroundings.

In the Student Branch, about twenty-five girls of 16 to 18 are following something of the programme of a Swiss pensionnat. French is a compulsory subject of study, and so are the courses in General Subjects, such as World Affairs, History of Art, etc. In addition, students may take courses in Art, Music, Domestic Science, Shorthand, Typewriting, etc.; and pupils taking Modern Languages as the main subject are prepared for Scholarship and Entrance to Universities.

A prospectus of either part of the School in England will be gladly sent on application to:—The Secretary, Ecole St. Georges, Onslow Hall, Shrewsbury, Shropshire.

FREE BEDROOM. Young Girl willing to help in household. Part time war worker not objected. Pocket money if required. Mrs. Morris, 26, Woodcroft Avenue, Mill Hill, N.W.7.

TO PRIVATE HOTELS etc. Experienced Accountant can assist you with correct Bookkeeping and computations for Revenue that may save you trouble and Income Tax. Moderate fees. Box 97, Swiss Observer, 23, Leonard Street, London, E.C.2.
