SWISS CHURCH.

Many of our compatriots will have learnt with regret that our German Swiss congregation has lost the services of the Rev. E. Joriot, who, true to his calling, has accepted the post of Minister at an orphanage in Chile, South America. He is at present on his way to his new field of labour for His Master and many of our compatriots will wish to join us in our prayers and good wishes for his future happiness.

Under present war conditions, it will be appreciated, the appointment of a new Minister creates certain difficulties and as a result will have to be postponed for the time being. Until such time as the services of a new Minister from Switzerland can be obtained, a retired Minister, the Rev. P. Rad has kindly offered to conduct our services at the Oak Room, Kingsway Hall, every Sunday at 11 a.m. Although not of Swiss nationality, Mr. Rad is attached to our country through various ties. He studied theology in Switzerland from 1901 to 1905 and was ordained a minister of the reformed church. For many years he has served as Minister of the gospel at the Presbyterian Church of Ireland in Danzig. One of his sons in law is Swiss and living at Winterthur. His sermons speak of vast experience gathered during a period of more than 40 years in the Ministry. We sincerely hope that our compatriots will support him by as regular an attendance at church as possible.
