SILVER JUBILEE OF THE SWISS OBSERVER.

Dear Mr. Editor,

You must feel proud,
That the "S.O." — child of your own creation —
Can celebrate its Silver Jubilee.
Congratulations, silent or aloud,
Shall wing their way down to your sea-girt station,
Entwin'd with thanks from many a devotee.

Modest in size, but in ambition great,
Your paper serves as outpost of our Nation,
Defending what we cherish and believe.
It counsels concord and denounces hate,
Relies on facts, rejects all cheap sensation
And stands for what is right, as we conceive.

Your dear "S.O.," through five-and-twenty years,
Has been our trusty link of contemplation
On happenings in our native land;
May it continue to enlarge its spheres
And to pursue its noble aspiration,
True to itself—at no time cap-in-hand!

Gallus.

October, 1945.
