For full particulars of Services and fares, overland and by Air, please see separate leaflets.

IN SWITZERLAND, you are sure of a friendly welcome, and will find conditions practically normal. Although food-rationing is still in force, there is plenty to eat, and the service is as good as ever.

Upon arrival at the Swiss Frontier or Air Terminal, you will be handed Meal Coupons for 3 days. Your Hotel will then see to those for the rest of your stay, or you can obtain them yourself from the local Food Office.

You can move about freely in Switzerland. Transportation facilities by rail or road are, if anything, better than pre-war. Make use of your vouchers for local excursions as well as for the payment of your Hotel bill, and meals in Restaurants.

Gang lueg d'Heimat a!
