COMMUNIQUE — Swiss Interests in Hungary.

Last July, Switzerland and the People's Republic of Hungary have concluded their negotiations regarding the settlement of Swiss interests in Hungary. The Agreement was ratified by the Federal Council on the 28th July, 1950. Accordingly the Hungarian Authorities are prepared to repurchase the fix income bonds (debentures, government loans, cash vouchers, mortgage certificates, land charge notes, etc.) which are the property of Swiss citizens or Swiss corporate bodies.

Swiss nationals and companies who wish to take advantage of this possibility must do so before November 1st, 1950. Those domiciled in Great Britain are invited to approach without delay the Swiss Legation in London (18, Montagu Place, W.1) who will be able to give them all the information in respect of the procedure to be followed.
