

Zeitschrift: The Swiss observer : the journal of the Federation of Swiss Societies in the UK

Herausgeber: Federation of Swiss Societies in the United Kingdom

Band: - (1950)

Heft: 1149

Rubrik: Swiss Benvolent Society and Christmas

Nutzungsbedingungen

Die ETH-Bibliothek ist die Anbieterin der digitalisierten Zeitschriften. Sie besitzt keine Urheberrechte an den Zeitschriften und ist nicht verantwortlich für deren Inhalte. Die Rechte liegen in der Regel bei den Herausgebern beziehungsweise den externen Rechteinhabern. Siehe Rechtliche Hinweise.

Conditions d'utilisation

L'ETH Library est le fournisseur des revues numérisées. Elle ne détient aucun droit d'auteur sur les revues et n'est pas responsable de leur contenu. En règle générale, les droits sont détenus par les éditeurs ou les détenteurs de droits externes. Voir Informations légales.

Terms of use

The ETH Library is the provider of the digitised journals. It does not own any copyrights to the journals and is not responsible for their content. The rights usually lie with the publishers or the external rights holders. See Legal notice.

Download PDF: 02.03.2025

ETH-Bibliothek Zürich, E-Periodica, <https://www.e-periodica.ch>

W. Meier (Swiss Mercantile Society). They were instructed to study in advance and submit proposals on any matter which was likely to come before the Journée and which might be of interest to the Swiss living in Great Britain. Any recommendations by individual Societies should therefore in the first instance be brought to the knowledge of this Committee, who would also study a recent proposal that young Swiss abroad should receive a commemorative gift on coming of age.

An idea put forward by Dr. Egli whereby the Swiss abroad should be enabled to participate in the Swiss Old Age and Dependents' Insurance Scheme at a flat rate of premium which would be on a self-balancing basis (said to be somewhat above Fr.300.— p.a.) received general support from the Assembly. The Secrétariat des Suisses à l'Étranger will be notified accordingly.

The question of securing more widespread support for the Swiss Observer both from subscribers and advertisers was held over owing to the absence of Mr. R. de Cintra (Cercle Genevois and Swiss Sports). He has been studying this matter with the Publisher and the Editor at the instance of the Assembly.

In accordance with the rules of the Assembly the officers then retired and they are not eligible for the next following year. Mr. C. Berti (Unione Ticinese), previously Vice-Chairman, was unable to accept nomination as Chairman and the following were then elected by unanimous vote: Mr. R. Dupraz (City Swiss Club), Chairman; Prof. J. Inebnit (Swiss Club Leeds), Vice-Chairman; Mr. W. Meier (Swiss Mercantile Society); Hon. Secretary.

An appeal was made to all concerned to give as much notice as possible for forthcoming events to the Editor of the Swiss Observer in order to avoid the clashing of dates. The proceedings then terminated.

W.M.

SWISS BENEVOLENT SOCIETY AND CHRISTMAS.

Few members attended the quarterly meeting of the Swiss Benevolent Society on Monday, 27th November. This was because several councils and committees had happened to pick on the same Monday for their meetings. Owing to the absence abroad of the President the Hon. Vice-President, Mr. R. Dupraz, was in the Chair. Two facts emerged from dealing with the customary agenda. The first showed that all the Society's expenses have gone up and that it will be difficult to balance the accounts by the end of the year. The Hon. Treasurer expressed his hope that all outstanding subscriptions would come in before the books for 1950 will have to be closed.

The second item was the Christmas appeal for the poor. Every year the S.B.S. send parcels to families and individuals that are on their books. Some ladies of the Colony spend weeks every year carefully sorting out the used clothing and shoes which have been given to the Society for distribution. A lot of clothes need repairing, for the S.B.S. pride themselves on never passing on torn garments. This takes up a lot of time. All the shoes have to be measured and carefully marked, and the clothing has to be sorted according to sizes. All this work has now been completed and the ladies and gentlemen, untiring and unselfish, are ready to make up the parcels. But, alas, where before the war there was plenty, there is little now, and money will not buy nearly as much as in former years.

Let us all go through our cupboards and chests once more and see whether we can't spare something else. There is that perfectly good pair of shoes which is just a trifle too small for us, but which would fit admirably some poor woman. And what about the warm, woollen underwear, almost new, which we never wear because it tickles. It would be a godsend to a sick old woman who feels the cold so terribly. What about some sheets and bath towels, the table cloths which we no longer use now that the children are grown up and have left home. And daddy's spare umbrella which is really rather a nuisance standing about. Then there are all the apples which we shall never be able to finish — there was such a large crop in the garden this year, and they would make a welcome addition to the children's stockings. So will the sweets; I am sure we shall get some Swiss chocolate sent to us, and we can easily spare a few coupons and buy some confectionery. What other food could we spare, some tea, perhaps some fat? The main thing is that we get all the things ready quickly and send them at once to the Swiss Benevolent Society, 31, Conway Street, W.1. We shall never miss what we take away from our stores now, for we have so much. But to those in need it will make all the difference. To many it will mean a happier Christmas, and is not this well worth achieving?

MARIANN.

M·A·T TRANSPORT LIMITED

FORMERLY MACHINERY & TECHNICAL TRANSPORT LIMITED

INTERNATIONAL SHIPPING & FORWARDING AGENTS

LING HOUSE, DOMINION STREET, LONDON, E.C.2

Telephone: MONARCH 7174 (10 Lines)

Telegrams: MACANTECH, PHONE, LONDON

ALLIED HOUSES:

BASLE

M·A·T TRANSPORT A.G., Centralbahnstrasse 9
PHONE: 20985

ZURICH

M·A·T TRANSPORT A.G., London House, Bahnhofstrasse
PHONE: 258994