In celebration of United Nations Week the United Nations Student Association, with the active co-operation of international folk dancing societies, national groups and professional artists, is presenting in the Royal Albert Hall, on Monday, October 22nd, an International Festival of Folk Music and Dancing.

Some twenty different countries or regions will be represented, amongst them Switzerland and with over 200 dancers and nearly 50 musicians, the programme promises to be one of colour, spectacle and excitement. An entertainment of this kind will, no doubt, be serving real international and cultural purposes.
