CHALET-CHEESE

has gained world-wide reputation for its unexcelled flavour and nutritive value.

It is proposed to hold an International Congress for Church Music in Berne. A Committee has been formed under the chairmanship of Mr. A. Geering, Professor for Musicology at the University of Berne, and the suggested date is 30th August to 4th September. Prominent speakers will take part and there will be demonstrations of the historical and liturgical basis of church music and its development through the ages and consideration of modern trends. An international selection of organists and other musicians, choirs and instrumental ensembles will take part in the concerts. Interested readers should write to the organist of Berne Cathedral, Mr. K. W. Senn, for further information.

A team of six Swiss yachtsmen is to visit the Royal Albert Y.C., Southsea, for a series of races in boats of the National Swallow class beginning on June 23rd.

The extradition of two Yugoslavs who took a plane to Zurich last October was refused by the Swiss Federal Court.
