The new offices of All Travel Services in Burlington Arcade.

The face of London is forever changing with the course of history, although many of us who live here hardly notice these developments. For instance the Burlington Arcade has been one of London's most exclusive shopping centres since 1819, and many people were therefore a little surprised to see All Travel Services open up a new Branch there this month, as it appeared at first a radical departure from the traditions of the Arcade.

Needless to say though the premises occupied by All Travel Services are very modern they are in keeping with the tone and high standard set by the Arcade. The Offices are compact and the most has been made of the available space by careful planning and arranging. As a result of this, the general impression on entering is one of comfort and warmth. The pleasant fawn coloured leather arm chairs are invitingly comfortable, whilst the thick red carpet in the reception office radiates a cheerfully warm welcome.

Members of the Swiss Colony will of course be acquainted with Alltransport & Storage Ltd., and All Travel Services, both of whom having been for a long time operating from the heart of the City of London. All the same these new West End premises should be ideally convenient for both business houses in the Picadilly area as well as for private travellers.

The new Branch will be under the management of Mr. F. O. Sommer, who is personally known to many Swiss in London.

On the first and second floors above the Travel Office is housed the Removal Department of Alltransport & Storage Ltd., who specialise in international furniture removals. General shipping and forwarding business will continue to be handled by the Head Office of Alltransport & Storage Ltd., in the City.
